ANGLO-AMERICAN FORCES GAIN IN TUNISIA

Russians Report Successes in Whole Stalingrad Sector

Violent Fighting Rages For Control Of Skies In Africa

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

A German broadcast conceded today that Anglo-American troop columns were advancing in Tunisia as Axis forces dug into the Bizerte-Tunis region along the Gulf of Gabes and violent air battles raged for control of the skies over the North African colony.

"The daily growing strength of the Axis air forces especially impairs the advance of British and American troops," the Berlin radio said.

"The activity of Axis forces in Tunisia is limited to securing the district occupied until now and to bringing up further troops and war materials so as to fortify this bridgehead on the North African coast, which is the strongest by nature."

Allied offensives jarred Hitler-Hirohito & Co. further off balance on every front in World War II today.

While the Russians steadily tightened a gigantic trap against 300,000 to 400,000 Nazis in the Stalingrad sector, American, British and Fighting French forces hammered the Axis into an ever-narrowing corridor along the Mediterranean coast from Libya to Tunisia in North Africa.

German headquarters acknowledged with rare frankness that the Red armies had penetrated into Nazi defense lines south of Stalingrad and in the big loop of the Don river west of the long-besieged Volga city. The Nazi communiqué said vaguely that "counter measures are proceeding."

On the Soviet front, Russia's great five-day-old offensive to relieve Stalingrad and trap the German siege armies scored sharp gains overnight on both flanks of the pincers movement.

Soviet dispatches said the Germans had lost a staggering total of 50,000 killed and captured in the first four days of the drive and now faced disaster as the Red armies cut deep behind them.

Driving roughshod over crumbling Nazi defenses, the Russians were reported to have scored new 2-mile advances both north and south of Stalingrad, capturing five strategic towns and thrusting a spearhead to a point 125 miles northwest of the Volga metropolis.

German losses in men, material and territory suggested that the Nazis had either been badly weakened by withdrawals or were on the verge of a clear-cut rout.

British 8th Army Continues Pursuit Of Retreating Axis

Cairo, Nov. 24—(P)—The British Eighth Army entered Agadabia, 100 miles south of Bengasi, yesterday and continued its pursuit of the broken Axis army toward El Agheila, 70 miles to the west, the British announced today.

Field Marshal Rommel's forces were evacuated the Gialo oasis, south of Agadabia, and were reported continuing their withdrawal toward El Agheila, where a battle may be made.

British advance forces maintained contact with the rearwards of the retreating Axis forces on a road to El Agheila, the communiqué said.

Air activity over the Libyan desert was on a small scale yesterday, the communiqué said, but reported aircraft were active over the Mediterranean and an enemy merchant vessel was reported hit and sunk southeast of Sardinia.

WAR BULLETINS

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 24—(AP)—A total of 8,500 employees of the Ford Motor Company of Canada walked off their jobs today in a protest which United Automobile Workers Union officials said was directed against the company's cent employment of women at less than the rates formerly paid to men. The Ford plants are engaged on war orders.

London, Nov. 24—(AP)—The House of Commons went to secret session today, presumably to debate army training, after Laborite Richard R. Stokes asserted that Prime Minister Churchill suppressed a BBC broadcast Gen. Charles Gaulle was scheduled to make last Sunday.

Chairman Lawrence To Call Chieftains Together Soon To Frame Plans

REPUBLICAN PROGRAM

BY WICK TEMPLE
Harrisburg, Nov. 24—(P)—A veteran Pittsburgh senator and a youthful Berks county representative were advanced today as likely leaders of the Democratic minority in the 1943 Pennsylvania legislature.

A high party official who declined to be quoted said 63-year-old Bernard E. McGinnis probably would be retained as senate floor leader with 34-year-old Albert S. Readinger the logical choice for the same post in the house.

Democratic Chairman David L. Lawrence is expected to call party chieftains together soon to map legislative plans for the assembly session convening January 5.

Republicans apparently have agreed on their legislative leadership, slating Ira T. Fiss, Snyder county contractor, for speaker; Charles H. Ealy, Somerset, president pro tempore of the senate; and Weldon B. Heyburn, Delaware county, majority leader of the upper branch.

United States Twelfth Air Force Headquarters, Algeria, Nov. 20—(Delayed)—(P)—Lieut. Col. Elliott Roosevelt, the president's son, commanding a technical observation unit, arrived today at Major General James H. Doolittle's headquarters to join the United States air forces operating in North Africa.

Ickes Urges New Pipeline

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—Petroleum Coordinator Ickes told a congressional committee today to construct a second new oil pipeline from the southwest oil fields to the New York-Philadelphia area, and said if approved it would add 200,000 barrels daily to eastern oil supplies.

The interior secretary told a house interstate commerce subcommittee it would take from nine to twelve months to build the line if authority and priorities were granted.

It would supplement a line already being built from Longview, Texas, to Norris City, Ill., and thence to New Jersey.

The line already being built to Illinois, Ickes said, is scheduled for completion by December 15, but probably would be held up because of a labor shortage and delays in obtaining pumping equipment.

He said the extension of this line to New Jersey probably would be completed by next June, resulting in daily delivery of an additional 300,000 barrels of crude oil to the eastern coast.

Thirty-Four Of 52 Men Sent To Erie Inducted Into Army

First Group To Be Given Seven-Day Furlough, Official Says

THIRTY FROM BOROUGH

According to unofficial information received from Erie this afternoon 34 of the 52 Warren county men who were sent to Erie Monday for examination for induction into the army under the Selective Service Act were accepted. Of these thirty were from Warren and one each from the following places—Youngsville, Tiona, Clarion and Russell.

Eighty-two selectees and 17 men and youths were inducted into the army during the afternoon. It is understood that this is the first group that was given a seven-day furlough. The fourteen-day furloughs were reduced effective as of Monday, Capt. Ernest J. St. Jacques said in Erie.

The group will leave next Monday morning for an induction center in charge of Raymond Stein, who was named acting-corporal to be in charge of the trip.

Wife Is Freed Of Murdering Her Husband

New York, Nov. 24—(P)—Fried Mrs. Anna Harrington, 21, mother of four who was charged with first degree murder in the shooting of her husband she said branded her face with a roaring fork, is free again.

A Bronx county jury of four women and eight men, after deliberating about six hours, last night acquitted the 98-pound woman who had been accused of firing a shot into the spine of Alvin Harrington, 23, last June. Harrington died in September.

The shooting was said to have culminated an argument concerning $3. Mrs. Harrington claimed she did not know the gun, which was discharged during the quarrel, was loaded.

She testified that Harrington had beaten her numerous times. Judge Harry Stackell told the jury it must consider self-defense as a possible motive. The prosecution had not asked the death penalty.

Before Harrington died a court order sought by his foster-mother, Mrs. Florence Kelly Cammarata, permitted him to see the children. Mrs. Cammarata, who has had custody of the children—they range in age from one to five—said Mrs. Harrington had refused her husband's pleas to see them.

HAS 97TH BIRTHDAY
Altoona, Nov. 24—(P)—The Rev. James A. Sell, acclaimed as Blair county's oldest resident, celebrated his 97th birthday anniversary yesterday. Mr. Sell started work as a farmer, turned carpenter and then printer, being one of the founders of the Tyrone "Herald" in the 60's. Later he returned to farming and also took up preaching.

BOARDS GIVEN NEW ORDERS ON MANPOWER

Government Acts to Assure Retention of Army of Workers On the Home Front

MASTER LIST COMPILED

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—The government acted today to assure retention of a sufficient army of war workers on the home front by forbidding enlistment of essential aircraft and shipbuilding workers and expanding the list of necessary jobs to one out of every nine types in industry and agriculture.

Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey announced that the army and navy will refuse to accept volunteers holding essential jobs in the aircraft and ship building industries as well as men who have resigned such jobs within 60 days before they apply for enlistment.

To protect those industries from a drain of necessary men, Hershey said he telegraphed every state that local draft boards should "refuse a release to any registrant in II-B or III-B" and who is employed in the two industries.

To guide local draft boards in determining which persons should have occupational deferment, the War Manpower Commission announced last night the preparation of a master-list of essential war jobs containing about 3,000 of the nation's estimated 27,000 occupations.

The list expands the types of jobs specified in earlier classifications by defining more precisely the general job titles previously cited as vital to war production.

Meantime, War Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt expressed belief that civilians rather than military authorities should decide on the division of manpower between the military services and civilian industry.

Hershey said his new instruction (Turn to Page Two)

President Of Ecuador White House Guest

BY ALBURN WEST

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—President Carlos Arroyo Del Rio of Ecuador, whose government has provided United States forces with strategic bases for the defense of the Panama Canal, begins a crowded four-day program of official functions today after spending the night at the White House as the guest of President Roosevelt.

The Ecuadorian chief executive arrived by plane yesterday in response to a special invitation from Mr. Roosevelt. He was welcomed by the president, cabinet members and military leaders.

A 21-gun salute boomed as President Arroyo stepped from his plane to be greeted by President Roosevelt. Seated beside the North American chief executive, he rode down framed Constitution Avenue through lines of helmeted soldiers with fixed bayonets. Armored cars and jeeps flanked the presidential automobile.

Early in the evening President Arroyo was guest of honor at a state dinner at the White House.

After four days in Washington, the party will go to Detroit and Buffalo for inspections of war plants and will spend three days in New York City.

YORK, Nov. 24—(P)—District Attorney W. Burg Anstine said today decision on whether to bring William A. Jackson, 17, to trial on a charge of slaying his mother would depend upon the report of a psychiatrist who examined the boy for three hours yesterday.

Young Jackson, who Anstine said admitted stabbing his mother to death and dismembering her body with an axe, is in the York hospital for treatment of burns he allegedly received while trying to cremate the body.

The youth was charged with murder in the first degree after his father found Mrs. Jackson's head, legs and arms in a burlap bag and her torso in a small building on the family farm near here on Saturday.

The reenactment will take place, Anstine said, as soon as young Jackson recovers from third degree burns which the district attorney said he received in an explosion when he attempted to set fire to the body with gasoline.

Anstine said he confessed killing her because she nagged him.

OPA Says Good Turkey Should Cost About $6

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—A good turkey will cost the average housewife about $6 this Thanksgiving.

Top quality birds will cost between 46 and 55 cents a pound in the larger cities.

250,000 Jews Are Reported Exterminated

One-Half of Population In Poland Said To Have Been Ordered Killed

METHOD IS REVOLTING

London, Nov. 24—(P)—The Polish government-in-exile asserted today that Heinrich Himmler, Nazi Gestapo chief, had ordered the extermination of one-half of the Jewish population of Poland by the end of this year and that 250,000 had been killed through September under that program.

"According to information leaking from the German labor office (Arbeitamt), only 40,000 Jews are to remain in the Warsaw ghetto, only thoroughly skilled workers to be employed in the German war industry," a government statement said.

The statement said that those marked for extermination at any time are "driven to a square where old people and cripples are segregated, taken to a cemetery and shot."

"The remainder," it said, "are loaded into freight cars, 150 to a car intended for 40. The floor of the car is sprinkled with a thick layer of lime or chlorine-sprinkled" (Turn to Page Two)

BUTTER SHORTAGE IS FEARED IN PHILLY

Philadelphia, Nov. 24—(P)—A "run" on butter and butter substitutes forced scores of Philadelphia retail grocers to adopt voluntary rationing today to prevent a shortage over Thanksgiving.

Trade increased sharply last week after the government "froze" 50 per cent of the butter supply in the warehouses of the nation's 35 largest cities. Wholesale here began apportioning sales to retail outlets.

Author Valtin Under Arrest

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—Attorney General Biddle announced today that Richard Julius Herman Krebs, who wrote a widely-sold book in his experiences as an agent of the Gestapo and the OGPU under the name of Jan Valtin had been arrested near Bethel, Conn., on a warrant ordering his deportation to Germany.

The next step presumably will be to intern Krebs as an enemy alien, since he cannot be returned to Germany during the war.

The justice department declined to comment on this in line with its policy concerning enemy aliens.

Krebs is a native of Darmstadt, Germany, and is 37.

His book was entitled "Out of the Night."

System Of "Ration Banking" Will Be In Operation Soon

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—Dealers in rationed commodities are going to put their sugar in the bank.

A system of "ration banking" requiring separate bank accounts for sugar, coffee, gasoline and other rationed products will be placed in operation throughout the nation sometime in January, the office of price administration announced last night.

A grocer, for example, will deposit in the bank all the sugar ration coupons he collects from customers. To replenish his stock, he will draw a check on his rationing account for required number of coupons. The check goes to the grocer's supplier who in turn will deposit the check in his own rationing account.

The checks, cleared in the same manner as checks for money will be handled by 14,000 commercial banks which will be reimbursed by the government for the added expense of keeping the new accounts of pounds and gallons of rationed products.

Designed to facilitate the handling of the coupons, the system will affect only retailers, distributors and large users of rationed goods such as restaurants which buy from wholesalers. The household holder will not be affected directly.

ALLIED TROOPS MOVE SLOWLY INTO POSITION

Great Gathering Of German Planes In Mediterranean Area Forecasts Hard Battle

ADVANCE IS HAMPERED

By the Associated Press
London, Nov. 24—A violent and costly air struggle for control of the Tunisian skies and the Axis airways over the Mediterranean appeared in the making today, reports from Allied North African headquarters indicated, as British and American troops moved slowly into position for the all-out drive on Tunis and Bizerte.

A headquarters spokesman, noting the gathering of great fleets of German planes in the Mediterranean area and the continued arrival of Axis reinforcements in Tunisia, said "the fight is going to be tough and longer than might be expected."

A Vichy broadcast recorded by Reuters said the Allied-held ports of Algiers, Bone, and Bougie, in Algeria, were bombed heavily last night.

The general picture in Africa was improved greatly by the announced adherence of French forces at Dakar to Admiral Jean Darlan, now cooperating with the Allies in North Africa, but the task of driving Axis Tunisian forces into the sea grew in magnitude hourly.

The Allied advance toward the core of German resistance in the Tunis-Bizerte region of northeastern Tunisia has been hampered and slowed by Axis air forces, reports from headquarters indicated, although British Spitfires and other Allied fighter planes are now in action and have scored notable successes.

German bombers, operating from Italian bases in Sardinia and Sicily, can hop over to Tunisia in little more than an hour and the Axis air bases in Tunisia have been nightly reinforced with fighters and bombers, some flown from the Russian front, it was said.

The action of French leaders in Dakar in throwing in their lot with Admiral Darlan was regarded by official Allied quarters in North Africa as "purely a French matter," but the acquisition of the excellent naval port by Darlan was recognized as of great advantage to the Allies.

It was assumed that the port would be thrown open to Allied warships and shipping as were Casablanca, Oran and Algiers, providing an important base in the south Atlantic. But, above all, it removed the possibility that the base might be used for Axis submarines and thus wiped up a large threat to shipping in the south Atlantic.

Australian Jungle Force Enters Gona

BY C. YATES Mc DANIEL

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Nov. 24—(P)—American and Australian soldiers fought their way yard-by-yard toward Buna today against Japanese forces that apparently have chosen to be exterminated rather than to surrender their southernmost New Guinea beachhead.

Extending the picture of relentless envelopment, today's midday communiqué reported an Australian jungle column had moved into Gona, enemy anchor 12 miles above Buna, and was mopping up the die-hard garrison there.

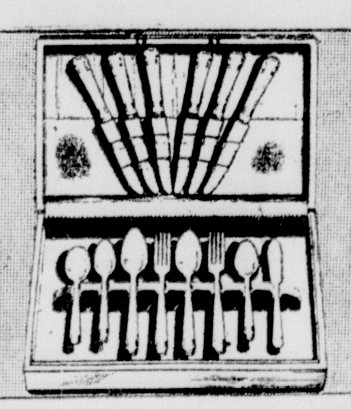

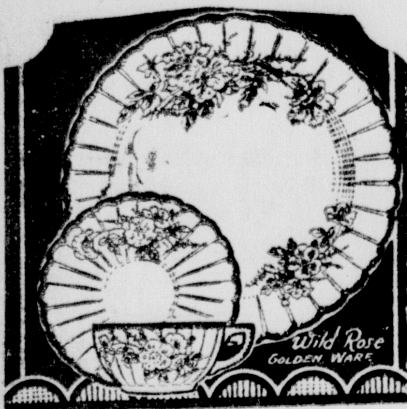

Simultaneously, American forces overran Cape Endiadeu which lies three miles southeast of Buna, overcoming stiff resistance from many machinegun nests and tree-top snipers.

While some of the Allied left wing forces were completing the mop-up job in Gona, others turned down the coast toward Sanananda between Gona and Buna, which the enemy was reported to occupy in force.

The Japanese were resisting fiercely around Buna although they were forced to fight with no air support and no sea support.

With Gona entered and Allied troops reported on the beach between Buna and Gona, the last points of resistance seemed to be at Buna and at Sanananda.

New Trial Is Refused In Line Dispute

At a session of court held this morning Judge Allison Wade handed down an opinion in the case of Alta E. Lund vs. Harry G. Rogers and Mary Rogers in which the defendants sought a new trial. In the opinion the new trial was refused, the case is one involving a property line between properties owned by the principals in the case on East street.

Two divorces were granted. One to Richard Beshlin vs. Katherine M. Beshlin and one to Eugene A. Farnsworth from Valeria Mae Farnsworth.

District Attorney Joseph Goldstein presented Herford Matthy, of this city to the court. Matthy had entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated and damaged two other cars besides his own in an accident opposite Angove's Market on Saturday November 7. Judge Wade passed sentence imposing a fine of $100, imprisonment for not less than 30 days in the county jail and all of his legal rights to operate an automobile were taken from him.

Another session of court is being held this afternoon.

tions did not constitute a blanket deferment of aircraft and ship-building employees, and added that they would "continue to be called for military service as they are needed and they can be replaced in essential jobs."

The intention, he declared, was to prevent a drain on the two war industries which might cripple some plants if not controlled. He reported that local boards had been directed to call such workers "gradually, if they can be replaced, so as not to interfere with war production."

Washington, Nov. 24—(P)—Trade associations jumped in today to help Senators Byrd (D-Va.) and Vandenberg (R-Mich.) cut the red tape which they contend is holding needed manpower to the job of preparing countless government reports and questionnaires.

Vandenberg told reporters he had received assurances from a number of trade groups that they would provide the joint committee on reducing non-essential expenditures with detailed surveys of the manhours consumed in compiling reports and their cost to business firms.

Byrd said the committee, of which he is chairman, planned to hear leading business men outline the difficulties they have encountered in keeping the government informed on practically everything they do.

Red Cross officials call attention to minor children who wish to make donations. Any person between 16 and 21 must secure and have filled out a minors release form. These may be had at Red Cross Headquarters. This is in addition to the regular application form and, it was pointed out last night, this minors release must be brought to the donation center at the time donations are to be made. Perhaps a dozen or more minors appeared yesterday, ready to make a donation, who had failed to secure or have with them the proper release. The staff in charge had no alternative but to turn such applications away with a reminder that the minors release must be presented by each minor at the time the donation is to be made.

No definite date has been set for the next appearance of the mobile unit in Warren but it is believed it will be sometime in early December. Persons who gave yesterday cannot appear at this session but will be called upon at the third visit of the unit in January. In the meantime additional volunteers are needed for the next visit and those desiring to make donations are reminded to fill out blanks now.

Members of the local committee express their appreciation to all those who made donations and to those who stand ready to donate the next time. They also are grateful to the staff of women and men who helped at the City Building yesterday, to Borough officials who granted permission to make use of the facilities of the city building and to the Warren Times-Mirror for the publicity given this important work.

PITTSBURGH NURSE LOSES LIFE AT FRONT

Ligonier, Nov. 24—(P)—Vivacious Gertrude Irwin has had her wish to serve her country in the front lines fulfilled, but at the cost of her life.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin, parents of the pretty, 24-year old army nurse and lieutenant, were notified yesterday by the war department of their daughter's death "in action" in Africa on Nov. 14.

Only a few days earlier the couple had received a letter from Lieut. Irwin, telling them, "don't worry about me." She said she was working 12 hours daily in an African hospital but was having "a good time."

No details of the death were given.

SOUTHERN IN SPARKLING

GAY MUSICAL COMEDY

"Panama Hattie" and company, which opens today and Tuesday at the Library Theatre, are on their merry musical way through Panama and not a spy is safe. Nor a grouch!

Starring Ann Southern and Red Skelton, this Metro-Goldwyn-May version of the Broadway production is fast-moving at all times, offers new and hummable tunes and is funny enough to entertain the worst grouch you know.

Rich in elaborate stage numbers and tempered with a good-down-earth story revolving around the romance of Miss Southern and Dailey, Jr., plus the zany antics of Skelton, Rags Ragland and Ben Blue, the film contains every conceivable element of entertainment.

*Your TOASTER

KEEP IT WORKING

Even the toaster is working for Victory by helping war workers and their families keep fit. Help keep IT fit. Here are a few toaster tips worth remembering.

- Be careful when cleaning your toaster. Never put it in water. Use a damp cloth.
- Use a mild abrasive to take off stains or butter. The heating element cleans itself when you turn on the current.
- A small brush, kept exclusively for the purpose, is effective for removing crumbs if your toaster does not have a removable crumb tray. Don't use the brush 'til the toaster is cool.

If your toaster won't work—take it to your electric appliance service man. He knows how to repair it economically—and keep it working.

TIMES TOPICS

IN HAMOT HOSPITAL

Larry Barr, 201 Pennsylvania avenue west, who was admitted to the Hamot Hospital in Erie Sunday, submitted to an operation there early this morning.

ELDERLY COUPLE TO WED

Paul Keleti, 70, of nearby Jackson Center and Theresa Cygledi, 72, of Chicago, applied Saturday for a marriage license at the Mercer county court house. They said both had been married twice previously.

RECTOR RESIGNS

The Rev. Rodney Fitzgerald Cobb has resigned as rector of Rochester Trinity Episcopal church to accept the pastorate of St. Luke church at Smethport, McKean county, effective January 1.

TWO SCHOOL PLAYS

Pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of the Dean school at Columbus are presenting two dramatic productions to the public this evening, a play, "We Want Mother," and an operetta, "The Inn of the Golden Cheese".

GIVING AWAY PUPPIES

Mrs. Catherine Baxter, 105 Hill street, reports that she would like to give to some little boys or girls in the community six black cocker spaniel puppies, two months old and with choice of males or females. Further information may be had by calling 830-R.

BOY LOSES EYE

Joseph Augustine, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Augustine of Hillsville, near New Castle, lost his right eye in an accidental shooting while playing soldier with a cousin. His condition is regarded as fair at a hospital in Jamestown, Pa.

THESPI MEETING

The weekly meeting of the Thespi Club will be held this evening at the home of Kenneth Jasperson, 1208 Pennsylvania avenue, west, and all members are asked to be present to discuss final arrangements for the Thanksgiving dance.

FIRST VICTIM

Harry Kuhns, 18-year-old resident of Irwin, who was admitted to the Community Hospital in Kane on Thursday night, is said to have been the first victim reported during the bear season. Kuhns was hunting with a party of friends near Sheffield when he accidentally shot himself in the foot.

CLASSES PLAN

Members of the junior-senior Latin class of the high school held a tureen supper last evening in the school cafeteria. During the business meeting which followed, plans were made for the annual Christmas meeting. Later, games and music were enjoyed for a social time.

NOTICES IN EARLY

Ministers and church secretaries are asked to keep in mind that notices for the regular church column in Friday's issue must be turned in by Wednesday noon, since there will be no Times-Mirror published on Thanksgiving Day and considerable time is necessary in preparing the column for publication.

PLANNING CONTEST

Jennie Lyon, secretary of Warren County Pomona Grange No. 10, reports that there will be a health poster contest in conjunction with the next quarterly meeting, each Grange to bring its best posters and $20 to be offered in prizes. Another action taken by the county organization is the decision to purchase another $100 value war bond.

STORES OPEN FOR BUYING

Warren's stores will be open Friday evening until 9 o'clock in an endeavor to help the residents of the community get their Christmas buying under way. It will mark the opening of the Christmas season in Warren and will not be marked by any parades, etc., inasmuch as the government wants use of electricity, etc., held to a minimum. It will give buyers an extra night of shopping time, allow them to see the splendid displays and give all that holiday lift that comes only once each year.

IS COOPERATING

Rev. Martin Hamlin, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, is cooperating in the Ministerial Association effort to make the Wednesday night Thanksgiving service truly community in nature and is cancelling his own midweek prayer service in its favor. His congregation will meet at seven o'clock Thursday evening for its Thanksgiving service, the pastor and Miss Jane Barlow bringing messages during an interesting program. The special offering will be used for the church treasury.

STORKS DECREASING

Storks, regarded as a sanitary asset in Holland, are decreasing in number there, due it is said, to eating poisoned grasshoppers while wintering in South Africa.

A. T. & T. Co. Statement On Toll Ruling

The following statement was issued by Walter S. Gifford, President, American Telephone and Telegraph Co. to show cause why its toll rates as well as other charges should not be substantially reduced:

"I find it difficult to understand why the Federal Communications Commission has issued such an order contemplating a drastic rate reduction because under the circumstances it would seem to make no sense.

The important thing is to win the war, and the Commission's program will interfere with our service which is vital to the war effort.

With our lines overloaded we are having a hard time to handle the calls we have now and we can't get the materials to handle more—neither is there manpower to spare to handle more. At the urgent request of the Board of War Communications, we are spending millions of dollars in advertising to get the public to reduce its use of Long Distance, and now comes the Commission seeking to reduce rates which will do just the opposite. I fail to see how by any stretch of the imagination a reduction in long distance rates will help win the war.

The company, therefore, feels it must resist a reduction in spite of the fact that a rate case would require the time of many people who are urgently needed to carry on telephone service in these critical times.

As to Long Lines earnings, the Commission's figures are misleading because they do not include all taxes. Our earnings as a whole, including Long Distance business, are substantially lower than last year, and are short of the dividend which we have paid for the last twenty-two years."

The above statement was issued by Walter S. Gifford on Saturday, Nov. 21 in answer to an order of the Federal Communications Commission.

Seal Drive Under Way In This County

With delivery on Monday of more than 7,000 letters to members of the Warren County Tuberculosis Society, the local campaign for sale of Christmas seals is officially under way.

The quota set for this campaign in Warren county is $4,800, an increase over that of last year and one necessitated by the larger number of tuberculosis cases being discovered daily. Reports have shown that two per cent of all draftees rejected by the army are afflicted with the disease; also that as industry increases its demands upon workers, tuberculosis also increases.

During the past year the Warren County Tuberculosis Society has maintained a nine-month nursing service in the rural schools, has tuberculin-tested almost all students of high school age in the county, and has provided educational material for both adults and students in the form of literature, charts and films. A small percentage of last year's Seal sale funds were given to the state to maintain beds in sanatoria and to further tuberculosis research.

The hope is expressed by H. M. Mohr, Seal sale chairman, that the people of Warren county will respond promptly and generously to the society's appeal so that the work of eradicating this dread disease may go forward in 1943 with greater effectiveness than ever before.

A new fire-fighting truck for use at airfields has been developed. It throws thousands of pounds of carbon dioxide onto the burning plane, smothering the flames and permitting rescue work.

HEALTH IS DEFENSE

BY PAUL BRAUNSCHWEIGER of the Mullen Drug Co.

The number of man hours lost each year due to accidents and to illness are many times greater than hours lost due to any other cause.

Health is defense, the most important factor in protection against any enemy, whether of foreign powers or of the onslaught of disease.

Protect yourself, your family, your friends and neighbors. Illness in one home may lead to infection of another. Good health becomes a patriotic duty.

WHY SOME PRICES RISE

If you've been wondering about apparent price rises in spite of ceilings, here is a partial explanation, at least, as furnished by Ruth Millett, in a special article written for the NEA and Times-Mirror:

Many manufacturers are trying to offset losses that arise from curtailment of raw material supplies by turning out higher-priced goods, on which the margin of profit is greater. It's a situation that is found all along the line, from the nickel candy bar makers to the wholesale clothing business.

So one of the pressing problems confronting Economic Stabilizer James F. Byrnes is how to keep the United States stocked with low-priced goods. His office is tackling the problem, but thus far no directives on the subject have been issued.

Your Thanksgiving dinner will probably cost you more than it did last year—but the Office of Price Administration sees no reason why the increase should be more than 12 or 15 per cent. A good many of the items on the traditional turkey-and-trimmin' menu are already on the price-ceiling list.

THANKSGIVING MENU OVERSEAS

It'll be roast pork Thursday for Warren boys fighting overseas with other Yankees—not turkey.

Major Gen. J. C. H. Lee, commanding general of the services of supply in the European theatre, says in a broadcast from London that the substitution on the Thanksgiving Day menu would be made because "to bring over turkey for all of us would be much too extravagant."

He said the gobblers which had been received would be served to "the wounded soldiers, sailors and airmen, the sick in the British and American hospitals in England and Ireland."

TIME TO CALL A HALT

Over-buying of food products by householders fearful of future rationing programs may force the government into adopting anti-hoarding regulations.

An official at Washington discloses that "panic-buying" of foods and other commodities has become widespread enough to give the Office of Price Administration concern.

"The hysteria seems to be getting near the point that otherwise wouldn't have to be rationed," explained the federal official.

PROTESTING TOO MUCH

The heavy accent being placed by the rigidly controlled Italian radio upon Italy's intent and ability to fight to the end serves to emphasize the probability that Mussolini's duchy is nearing military collapse.

The Italians never did have any heart for fighting against Great Britain and the United States. We shall welcome their capitulation, but must not attach too great importance to it.

Germany still lies across the Alps from Italy.

GET RID OF THE PENNIES

If a youngster has 36 pennies in a toy bank, he is hoarding enough copper for making another Garand rifle with which to shoot Japs and Nazis.

Let the kiddies save their pennies, by all means. Encourage them to do so.

But as fast as they have enough, let them buy war stamps or, at least, exchange the coppers for coins made from less critical metals.

The visit of the Red Cross Mobile Unit to Warren yesterday marked an important step in the borough's support to the war effort. Local officials were highly complimented by those in charge of the unit. Of the 176 interviewed 169 persons were put through in the five hours the unit was here, and most of those who made donations agreed to offer their services the next time called upon, which will probably be in January. It was a project well executed and all concerned may take patriotic pride in having participated.

Members of the retail merchants' bureau of the Warren Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring an unusual event when the stores will remain open Friday evening until nine o'clock to inaugurate the Christmas shopping season. Patrons throughout the area should make plans to start their holiday buying at that time.

This year, more than ever before, there are reasons for centering the Thanksgiving season in "song and praise." No better way for doing this can be found than to attend the community Thanksgiving service Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church.

"Well, How Are It For Swimming?"

Washington in Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—He hasn't had a lot of personal, prima donna publicity, but this guy Charles E. Wilson is the topic of a lot of highly favorable comment in Washington these days.

Wilson, hero of an office-boy-to-president saga at General Electric company, is top man in overall supervision of war production. In improved dovetailing of available raw materials and production schedules in the primary fields of shipbuilding, plane building, naval construction and Army munitions, Wilson is making his mark.

The talk is that Wilson has quietly moved in and ironed out a lot of output-limiting "bugs" in the plane production set-up. His organizational genius is making sense out of the involved business of getting vital accessories into fighting planes on schedule.

THERE'S so much headache-making detail involved in plane construction that some sort of executive control is necessary. It's no secret that failure to supply this rigid supervision resulted in some bad snafus.

Military agencies contract with the plane builders for plane bodies, propellers and engines. The huge collection of accessories, gauges and instruments necessary to complete a fighting unit are contracted for separately, and shipped to the plane factory for installation.

Wilson is given credit for considerably improving the flow of accessories so planes and their vital "innards" get together on schedule.

WILSON got off to a good start when he named Dr. Mordecai Ezekiel as his executive assistant. Ezekiel is acknowledged as one of the top statistical and analytical brains in the government. Much of the fact-and-figure digging that translated the New Deal's program from rarified theory into workable form was Dr. Ezekiel's doing.

He has been identified with the New Deal inner circle, and his status as Wilson's right-hand man is interpreted as "insurance" against political sniping at Wilson by die-hard New Dealers.

Wilson came up the hard way. Born on New York's east side, he went to work as an office boy when he was 13. What he did in his spare time started him up the ladder, and he's raised as an executive who does two jobs at once—the one under way and the one he's planning to do.

It was part-time work in the shop while he was an office boy that gave him a chance in industrial production. It was a part-time course in accounting while he was a shop executive that started him in the business end.

Since he got in the upper industrial brackets—he succeeded Gerard Swope as General Electric's president in 1940—he's continued this habit of doing the extra job.

Right now, while he's giving war production a needed shot-in-the-arm, Wilson is known to be working on the problems of post-war adjustment.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—If I were you, out in the Midwest and Far West, I wouldn't worry too much about this gasoline rationing business.

Like the rest of the people in the East, I have been living with gasoline rationing for months. My pulse is steady, my appetite good, my reflexes normal.

All this despite the fact I've gone through a lot of rationing grief that will never worry you.

Remember, last summer the East got rationed gasoline only when gasoline was available at all. In the big cities a large share of the motoring population ended up the introductory period with gasoline coupons that they could not trade for gasoline. It often was a question of knowing somebody's aunt who knew a man. The gas station attendants were run ragged explaining why they couldn't fill up a tank when they had promised to and in wondering if the gals on whom they had conferred a little favor were not government spies.

WELL, the permanent gasoline rationing system ended all that. Now everybody can get all the gasoline that the coupons call for. Because the gasoline stations must turn in coupons to get additional gasoline themselves, there is comparatively little chiseling. We don't have to waste much time speculating whether our neighbor can really get in all that driving on his "A" card. Moreover, the neighbor, like yourself, must base on his windshield whatever kind of sticker he is entitled to.

It's at this happy point in the gasoline rationing system that you come in. You don't have to be a guinea pig. The experiment is over now; you're the one to profit.

SOON you will find out that 4 gallons of gas (that's the current ration) can push the old gas-eater around on a rather enormous number of errands each week. And you'll find that if you don't watch it the car can run up miles in a manner you never realized.

You will find that you really enjoy walking those few short blocks to work, as you always intended, but never found time to. You will find that the children can still get to school, and that they are eating better as a result. You will find that the extra walking is improving your own appetite, and cutting down on annual colds.

You will find it isn't necessary to drive to the corner drug store every time somebody wants a stick of gum.

You may even find time to read a book or do the odd jobs in the basement, or clean out that old assortment of letters.

No, I wouldn't worry too much about the Age of Rationing.

Boys' Club At Y.M.C.A. Has First Meeting

The first meeting of the Saturday Evening Boys' Club was held Saturday evening, November 20, at the Y. M. C. A. with Mr. Cross, boys' work secretary, presiding. Forty-two boys arrived at the "Y" for a six o'clock swim.

At six-forty-five the group adjourned to the auditorium for a business session. The membership policy of the club was explained to the boys and Mr. Baker, retiring president of the Kiwanis Club, and Dr. Elliott, chairman of the committee in charge of the club, spoke briefly to the boys of the hopes and desires of the Kiwanis Club in sponsoring such a group. This is one of the big Kiwanian service projects and engages much of the time and interest of the club members.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting of the club this Saturday evening.

Hundreds At Meeting Hear Of Gas Ration

With the large court room crowded to capacity last night Warren County folk were given an insight into the methods whereby supplemental gas could be secured by holders of "A" ration books. The interest in securing additional gasoline was well evidenced by the large attendance and by the rapt attention which was given the speakers.

Chairman of the County Council of Defense, Allen Gibson, presided at the meeting and after a few preliminary words he turned the meeting over to George Cowden, county rationing board chairman. Mr. Cowden spoke for almost an hour outlining the various forms of ration books and the elements that entered into the securing of the various kinds of books. His remarks were clear and his meaning evident as at the conclusion of his talk there were only five questions asked when the meeting was thrown open for the discussion of the problem. Mr. Cowden made it clear that the rules were laid down primarily for the conservation of rubber which the coming year will show a deficit of 211,000 tons over the supply. The rules, he explained, were made by others than the ration boards and the local groups are powerless to make any changes and have to follow the rules. There will be no favoritism shown and all will be treated as fairly and as honestly as the local boards can administer the rules under which they work. He pointed out that violations of the rules call for the imposition of a $10,000 fine or ten years imprisonment for any ration board member violating the rulings. The same also applies to any person who furnished false information to the boards in their applications.

Monday evening. Membership cards will also be issued and the season's programs will get under way with movies being shown by Myron King.

One new and outstanding policy of the club this year is to have an S. E. B. "Dad" for each boy. It is hoped in this way to bring the Kiwanians in closer contact with the boys they sponsor and vice versa, thus enriching the experiences of both. Kiwanians who attended the opening meeting were: Dr. Elliott, H. D. Baker, Dr. T. E. Colley, and Allison Wade, esq.

Bible Supper Series Opens

If the opening night in the present Bible Supper Series of the Y. M. C. A. Boys' Department is an indication of things to come, this season will prove to be of enormous interest and benefit to all who participate. The course being offered is entitled "Atheletes of the Bible" and deals with outstanding Biblical characters of proven interest to boys.

There were twenty-four boys present at the opening session on Friday evening, November 20. Supper was served at 6 o'clock and the study period followed. The course was outlined for the boys by Mr. Ruoss, boys' work secretary, who is directing the course, and the point system was explained. The group was divided into two teams under the leadership of John Hanna and Dick Stone. Competition throughout the course will be on a team basis and at the end the winning team will be awarded a plaque with their name and the names of the team members inscribed on it. The plaque will then be hung in the boys' dept.

Last evening at the bi-weekly meeting of the boys' council four new members were admitted on trial. This means they have been given a part in the working schedule and can gain their permanent membership by fulfilling their present tasks successfully. The following boys were present as new applicants: David Winans, Creed Erickson, James Johnson, and Raymond Nichols.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your doctor for Doan's Filix. Used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give a happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Filix.

NOTICE

To customers of Pennsylvania Gas Co. who use any GAS for HEATING

New War Production Board Order prohibits the delivery of gas on or after November 30, 1942, for the operation of any space heating equipment unless such equipment was installed prior to November 30, 1942, and provided that deliveries of gas for the operation of such equipment were not prohibited prior to that date.

This new War Production Order is issued in an effort to make the available supply of gas sufficient to take care of all existing and estimated future requirements of War Industry.

PRESENT CUSTOMERS OF GAS NOT AFFECTED BY NEW ORDER

If you are now using gas for heating, as allowed under regulations in effect prior to November 30, 1942, you may continue to use this gas heating equipment or equipment of similar size at your present premises. However, if you own the heating equipment and move, you cannot use that equipment in the new location unless gas was used for heating in that new location by the previous occupant.

Domestic Cooking,
Water Heating
and Refrigeration

This order does not apply to the use of gas for domestic cooking, water heating and refrigeration.

In other words, no additional premises
NOT EVEN ONE ROOM
can be heated with gas on or after November 30, 1942

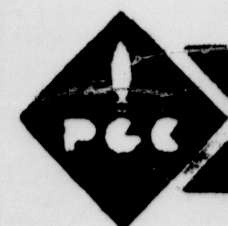

These new restrictions are on the use of gas for heating by Residential Consumers. Non-Residential Customers have not been allowed to use any additional gas for heating since March 1, 1942.

The obligation of complying with this new order rests upon both the Utility and the consumer, as the Order states: "On and after November 30, 1942, no Utility shall deliver and no consumer shall accept delivery of gas . . .".

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

We ask all our customers to assist in the WAR EFFORT by cooperating in carrying out this new regulation regarding the CONSERVATION OF GAS. You may do this by calling your Gas Company before purchasing any gas heating equipment or before moving your present gas heating equipment to a new location, in order to determine whether gas can be used in such equipment. If you do not do so, you may find you own gas heating equipment which cannot be supplied with gas.

ALL OVER AMERICA RISES A HYMN OF THANKS

These are solemn days. Now we have come to realize the full meaning of Thanksgiving. Let us give thanks that we live here, under no shadow of oppression, in the only land of plenty left in the world.

And while we are giving thanks, let us take heed that we have many sacrifices and adjustments still to make, to preserve this way of life.

We must work, strive, fight. We must do without, and invest in War Bonds, our guarantee for future Thanksgiving.

The Penney Company, with stores in over 1600 American communities, plays an important part in making possible the national war-time savings for War Bonds and Victory!

Community Thanksgiving Service Plan

The annual community Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Warren County Ministerial Association will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in First Baptist church, Dr. James A. Davidson presiding.

The Thanksgiving message will be brought by Dr. T. E. Colley, First Methodist minister and president of the ministerial group. Dr. H. H. Barr, retired Methodist pastor, will give the invocation, Rev. O. R. Ringlehoff, of the Church of the Nazarene, will read the Scripture.

The reading of President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation will be by Rev. Arthur Sennevald, minister of the Reformed church. President Roosevelt has solemnly urged that "every American in his own way life his voice to heaven" and that both Thanksgiving Day and New Year's Day be observed publicly and privately with prayer.

The Ministerial Association reports with gratification that most pastors and churches have indicated their willingness and desire to cancel all other meetings Wednesday evening so that everyone may be free to attend the community service. A large attendance is anticipated.

The offering, it has been announced, will be used to purchase more testaments for presentation to young men and women of the community called into armed service.

TIMES TOPICS

PUBLIC IS INVITED
Dr. H. A. Rindard, pastor of First Lutheran church, extends a cordial invitation to all members and the public to attend the Thanksgiving service to be held at nine o'clock Thursday morning.

PROWLER IS SOUGHT
Residents of the East Side who reside in the neighborhood of Irvine street report that for several nights past a prowler has been sighted by women. A call sent the police to the district last evening in the cruiser car and some time was spent in making a fruitless search of the neighborhood.

90TH ANNIVERSARY
Friends in Warren join with those in North Warren today in extending best wishes to Mrs. Miles Nelson, who is observing her 90th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Nelson is one of the oldest and best known residents of the nearby community, but is residing at present at 104 Wayne street, this city.

HAD BUSHELS OF KEYS
The bushel or more of keys in the window of the Pennsylvania Electric Company's office have drawn much attention as they were the result of a concerted drive carried on over the county. But down at Meadville one woman who drove up to the salvage office left a full bushel of keys and then drove away without giving her name. Where or how she got so many keys is a mystery.

TO HEAR MARTS
Chairman of the County Defense Council Allen Gibson, Commander Forest Waite, of the Control Center and P. C. Ostergard and Vice Commander Earl Langdon, of the Control Center will go to Oil City this evening. They will attend a dinner given by the Oil City Defense Council and will hear an address given by Dr. A. C. Marts, of the Council of Defense of Pennsylvania.

HOLIDAY MESSAGE
Dr. H. D. Barr, retired Methodist minister, will bring a Thanksgiving message to Kiwanians at their luncheon-meeting at the Hotel Carver tomorrow. Dr. J. R. Elliott will report on his initial session of the Saturday Evening Boys' Club sponsored by the club at the YMCA. Earl Flohr, program chairman, announces that Charles Springer, local office manager of the Bell Telephone Company, will show talking movies at next week's session.

ALARM CALLED FIREMEN
All of the trucks from the Central station and Engine Company No. 2 from the East Side were called to the YMCA at 9 o'clock this morning. A woman resident of Market street sighted smoke rising seemingly from the roof of the YMCA and called the firemen. It was discovered that men working with a blow torch making roof repairs caused the excitement. The firemen spent several hours as a result washing hose, polishing trucks and getting ready for the next call.

EQUIPMENT ARRIVING
Custodian Douglas G. Kroft, of Defense Council, has received from the government several hundred feet of fire hose which will be used with the emergency fire pumps that will arrive in the city in the near future. A shipment of helmets is also on hand and as soon as they can be numbered and registered they will be available for use. Chief Air Raid Warden William Stuart is anxious to get the helmets as when this shipment is made available for use all wardens can be equipped in the borough.

BLACKOUT COMING
With a blackout coming up before the end of the month tension is high among the workers in the various branches of defense. The daylight test held some days ago was a complete success in almost every way and it is hoped that the blackout test will be equally so. No date for the test has been received but it is expected to come this week and not on Thursday as that is a holiday. Many are anticipating that the sirens will sound tonight but that is only a guess on their part.

MRS. MILLER LOGAN

Funeral services in memory of Marion Keefer Logan, wife of Miller Logan, 4 Cottage Place, were held at two o'clock Monday afternoon from the Lutz Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. E. P. Wroth, rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery, with the following acting as bearers: J. L. Blair, Harold Blair, L. C. Jamieson, W. T. Davidson, Harry Schmidt and Thomas Fisher. Here from away to attend the service were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Keefer, Westfield, N. Y.; Mrs. Joseph C. Sibley and Mrs. William Wilson, Franklin.

CATHERINE HALLAHAN

A solemn mass will be sung at ten o'clock Friday morning in St. Joseph's church in memory of Miss Catherine Hallahan, who passed away Monday morning at her home, 1012 West Fifth avenue. Interment will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. Removal has been made to the home of a niece, Mrs. Charles Borne, 135 North South street, where the parish rosary will be recited at eight o'clock Thursday evening.

Miss Hallahan leaves, also, a niece and a nephew, Carl L. and Josephine Borne, of Warren; two nieces, Mary Ellen and Agnes Thresa Borne, New York City.

Turkey Day Games Will Close Respective Schedules In High Schools

BY JERRY WEINSTEIN
Harrisburg, Nov. 24.—(P)—Traditional Thanksgiving Day games, enhanced in some sections where conference championships are at stake, will climax Pennsylvania's scholastic football season Thursday.

Holiday encounters will determine the champions of the big fifteen, the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League and the northern division of the eastern conference.

Bethlehem, showing a big lead in the big fifteen, clashes with Allentown. Bethlehem has the title nearly clinched but Allentown still has a mathematical chance.

New Castle and Allentown, both undefeated and untied, will tangle at Allentown for the WPIAL crown. The rivals were selected from among seven undefeated and untied eleven to play for the honor.

Scranton Central, leading the northern division in the eastern conference, needs a victory or a tie against Scranton Tech to claim the title and earn the right to meet Shenandoah, southern division winner, for the conference championship. Should Tech upset Central, Kingston will be the divisional representative against Shenandoah December 5.

Elsewhere in the state, major games are scheduled between sectional rivals.

In the western conference where Tyrone already has won its third straight crown, Huntingdon goes to Mt. Union. Osceola Mills plays Phillipsburg and Jersey Shore travels to Lock Haven.

The powerful Phillipsburg, N. J., eleven invades Easton; John Harris and William Penn, both of Harrisburg meet; Hazleton town ship battles Hazleton; Shamokin goes to Mt. Carmel; Steelton to Williamsport and Northumberland to Sunbury.

Eastern conference games include Coal Township at Kulpmont, McAdoo at West Hazleton, Mahanoy City at Ashland, Blythe Township at Minersville, Lansford at Coal Dale and Hanover Township at Plains.

In the Philadelphia area, Germantown's city leaders invade Norristown, Coatesville plays

BOWLING

PENN BOWLING CENTER
Warren Billiard Academy was the biggest winner of the evening at Penn Bowling Center as they took three points from Faddales while Kochs Busy Bee and Recreation Center and Texas Lunch and Chiment's each split even in their matches. Evening honors went to Texas Lunch with high total of 2778 and their 961 team high. M. Check, of the Hot Dogs, took individual honors of 236 and a 644 total, which was a new high total. Next week's schedule there has been a change in starting time due to the gas station attendants in working overtime to set up the gas rationing. The following matches will start at 8:30: Faddales vs. Recreation Center, Texas vs. Kochs.

SABOTAGE ORIGIN
The term "sabotage" is said to have originated when European peasant laborers kicked their sabots, or wooden shoes, into factory machinery, pretending it to be accidental.

Some promising results have been obtained merely by painting or spraying thick latex on tire carcasses in which the fabric remains sound; this process may supplant vulcanizing.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON
New York, Nov. 24.—(P)—Heard at the listening post: A William and Mary supporter can blame himself for what those North Carolina pre-flight footballers did to the previously unbeaten Indians last Saturday. He went around to the cloud-bust hotel that morning with a wad of dough to bet and by the time Jimmy Crowley got around to giving his athletes a pep talk, they told him, "coach, we have to win." Michigan may raise the "take" from the fair grounds horse race bettors from 7 1/2 percent to 10 percent, giving the racing association an extra half percent, or about $80,000 in an ordinary season.

Quote, unquote.
Lon Stiner, Oregon State grid coach: "Monday morning quarterbacks aren't nearly as tough on losing coaches this year; they're too busy second-guessing the generals and admirals."

Clair Bee, Long Island U. basketball pilot: "Frankly, I can't tell my freshmen apart. They all look alike—discouraging."

Steve Owen, master-mind of the New York football Giants: "The best way to stop Don Huston is to let him catch a pass in the end zone. Then he can't catch another until they get the ball again."

The Harvard football team met the transportation shortage by getting a special street car to ride out to the Yale bowl last Saturday, but it had the usual escort of motorists.

Covering The Sports Front!

BY "KOB" JOHNSON
When the "Y" basketball league opens next week the year of war will be noticed by local fans more than ever in the toll it has taken of net exponents. With the arrival of indoor sports programs many familiar faces are going to be absent and the trend will be to much younger fellows plus a fine sprinkling of the old timers.

This week, two of the better players will be lost to the fighting legions when Wayne Campbell and Cliff Graham, of the triplets, leave for the army and navy. Wayne, one of the best ball handlers the high school has turned out in recent years will be inducted next Monday; and Cliff, a member of '30's fast quintet was about the best guard in town at the time of his sheep-skin handout. Here are two at least who will be missed on the hardwood when you go into that first game.

A few others will be taken within the near future out of the basketball ranks when Chuck Clawson and Milt Dahler leave, and Warnie Check out of the all-sports brackets. Chuckles and Milt had all it takes to start into the big time and a couple of baseballers out of the local sportsters better than these would be hard to find. Warnie of course will never be forgotten as one of the best passers ever produced in Warren and his Red Jacket days will never be forgotten.

Maybe there will be others who will take their places on the teams in '43, but those faces will be missed more than they will ever know, when the fans show up.

Paul Governor's last chance to break Davey O'Brien's all-time record for yardage fell short by a mere 15 yards when he went way over 200 yards for the game—Navy was the team that stopped his aerial works last week. Anyway he set new records at Columbia and most of them were Sid Luckmans—If the Dragons play an out of town game it will be at Oil City December 11th but don't count on getting there because if you get the gas dole it won't be enough to make the first overhead at Irvine and they won't either—Wonder if Bill Rice knew we left without paying for the games the other night and also stopped for a hot dog on the way home—The betting will be heavy the next match and that's sure. When Auburn drove over mighty Georgia they had lost the last four—Yeah and they had to shove the bowl right out of their laps.

Razzle Dazzle Tournament

A razzle-dazzle tournament open to all bowlers in the county is starting this week at Penn Bowling Center instead of the usual weekly high score awards.

Jackpot starting with $5.00 donation and the jackpot set at $13.50. The 25 cent individual entry goes into the jackpot until Sunday, December 6, or until partner team breaks the jackpot. Bowl as many times as you wish, with three game totals counting.

Beazley Rated Most Valuable Rookie
Chicago, Nov. 24.—(P)—Johnny Beazley, St. Louis Cardinals pitcher has been chosen the most valuable rookie of 1942 and two of his mates, Stan Musial and George Kurovski, placed fourth and sixth, respectively, in the selections.

Beazley received 192 votes, 56 more than runnerup Johnny Pesky of the Boston Red Sox, in a poll of the Chicago chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Vernon Stephens of the St. Louis Browns was third and Tex Hughson of the Red Sox fifth.

State Has Poorest Bear Season In Recent Years

Harrisburg, Nov. 24.—(P)—Warm weather and fewer hunters resulted in what the game commission described as one of the poorest bear seasons in Pennsylvania in years.

Director Seth Gordon reported yesterday that a preliminary survey of eight northern tier counties disclosed only six bears killed during the four-day season which closed Saturday. Nearly 600 black bears were killed in the state in 1941.

Brother . . . quit being so human!

Remember 1933—when times were tough?

Maybe you didn't have a job. Maybe you and your wife and kids didn't eat too well—dress too well—have too much fun. Maybe you swore then that if things were ever different, you'd make up for it.

Chances are, today, things are different. You've got a job. You're getting good money. And you'd naturally like to have a little fun with it. You'd like to buy some of the "extras" that you and your family never had during the hard times.

It's only human to feel that way. But right now—we've got to quit being so human!

Right now, over in England, a bunch of fellows are getting ready to tackle one of the bloodiest jobs ever given an Army. In the Pacific, another bunch is playing hide-and-seek with an enemy that thinks the right treatment for a wounded prisoner is a bayonet through the guts. Others are sweating in Africa—still others are on cold, dreary fog-bound islands near the Bering Sea.

That's their job.

But it's our job to give them the tools they need to win—by buying War Bonds! And so far, we aren't doing our full job! Right now, there are still people who ought to be buying War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—but aren't.

While plenty of people in the Plan are investing more than the 10% Uncle Sam needs, a lot are setting aside less than they can.

The fellows who aren't yet in the Plan—or, being in, haven't hit their 10% yet—aren't unpatriotic, or 5th Columnists, or anything like that. They're just human. They just haven't realized their Country's bitter, crying need—now! They haven't realized that Americans have been licked in battle for lack of planes, ships, tanks, and bullets—tools that the money we'd like to spend for fun has got to buy!

Uncle Sam hopes that every single one of us will realize it—by January 1, 1943. By that date, everybody on a payroll should be on a Payroll Savings Plan—and we'll "Top That 10% by New Year's."

So, if you aren't setting aside your 10%, go on in and tell 'em you want to raise your sights. Not to 6%, or 7% or 8%—but to at least 10%. If you can put in more than 10%—do it. If you aren't yet in on the Payroll Savings Plan—Sign up tomorrow!

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

If you are . . .

1. Already investing 10% of your pay in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—boost that 10% if you can.
2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow.
3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help.
4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank, or wherever Bonds are sold. They will be glad to help you start a Plan of your own.

Teachers At Lander Enjoy Dinner-Meet

Lander teachers sponsored a delightful dinner-meeting in the community house at that place last evening, those present including instructors, members of school board, bus drivers and County Superintendent H. L. Blair and his assistants. Also guests were Robert Huntley, principal of Russell schools, and Rev. William Fuller, Methodist minister, together with the wives of all the guests.

The evening's activities included a fine fried chicken dinner, with all the good things that customarily go with it, and a program of serious talks and humorous sketches.

Principal Orner acted as toast-master and Miss Doris Brace as song leader. Paul Rowland, board president, spoke for that group and Superintendent Blair gave an interesting talk on school procedure under present conditions. Several films were shown and a mock school board meeting held, in which applicants were interviewed and ability of board members as actors displayed. On this board at present are Mr. Rowland; secretary, Mrs. Hazel Kays; Paul Lindell, Wendell Burgett and Martin Prettyman.

Bomber Radio Operator Lost In War Zone

Mr. and Mrs. Lorentz Lindberg, of Yankee Bush, last evening was notified in an official telegram from the War Department in Washington, that their son, Sgt. Vernon Lindberg, radio operator on a bomber, is reported missing in the western European area.

Sgt. Lindberg enlisted in May, 1941, and left the United States about two months ago for an unknown destination. The last the parents heard from him was about a month ago.

Here's a Letter That Should

win this war quick. We've got to. It won't be your boys will be killed like mine was.

"So put those 5 and 10 year thoughts out of your head. Finish our refrigeration machines for the synthetic rubber program this month—not next. Keep our portable cold storage line going 24 hours a day—not 16 or 20.

"Sure this means sacrifices. Its no fun to work the night shifts. Its not easy to put ten percent of your pay into war bonds. None of us go for gas and fuel and food rationing.

"But these are nothing compared to losing someone you love. I know.

"Please, please don't wait for the casualty lists to come rolling in. Throw yourselves into high—now.

"Get going as though both the Huns and the Japs had to be licked in 1943. Maybe they will be if we really try.

"I suggest a new slogan for Carriers. Here it is—let's get it over quick!

"I hope you won't think I'm preaching. I'm not. I'm praying.

If your tires are underinflated, driving will take more power and more gasoline.

At The White House Inn

The comedy team of Fontinelle and Kennis, a very clever comedy and novelty duo, with songs, dances and gags to tickle your funny bone and make you forget your troubles. Novel presentations that have won acclaim throughout the west. Make this a "must see" on your entertainment program. You will be pleased. Lucky Lockett at the piano with music.

COURT DATES SET

Court has been set for December 22 and January 27. At these sessions petitions and motions will be heard, as well as specific cases set for action of court.

HEALTH IS GOOD

Health Officer Ralph Brown reports that the health of Warren borough is in good shape. There are only three cases of mumps and one of chickenpox now under quarantine in the whole city.

VALENTINES MOVING

The Valentine Disposal Company will move over the coming weekend from 126 Pennsylvania avenue, west, and will be open for business on Monday morning in the building formerly occupied by the Mellander Grocery.

ARTIST IS DEAD

Mrs. Laura Luce, of Titusville, well known in this city for her displays of work, died today at her home. She was 97 years of age and one of the outstanding oil country artists. She has shown her work in Warren on several occasions in years gone by.

FRATERNITY PLEDGE

Bruce Renne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Renne, of Venturatown, arrived home today for his Thanksgiving vacation from the University of Buffalo, where he is taking a pre-medical course. He reports he has been pledged to the Buffalo chapter, BNE fraternity.

LIONS' GATHERING

Lions Club members of Warren, Tidouste and Tionesta, meeting Tuesday night at the YWCA for dinner, had the pleasure of entertaining their district governor, Roy K. McDaniels, of Altoona, and the district deputy governor, Karl Flowers, of Titusville. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Borg provided vocal music for the dinner program.

HAS ACQUIRED MAPS

C. W. Barvis, city engineer, has acquired all of the maps and drawings of the late Alton Rogers and W. O. Mason, who made innumerable surveys in the city and county. Mr. Barvis has taken over all of their instruments and paraphernalia and has secured a wonderful array of data on lands and properties in the county.

CARS IN CRASH

LeRoy E. Gregory reported to the police that while driving west on Pennsylvania avenue last evening he turned into the Nichols Service Station and was hit by a car without lights. This car was owned and driven by O. C. Summerson, of Clarendon. The men will endeavor to reach an agreement as to damage done.

MAY ATTEND CHRISTENING

Arthur Covell, 12-year-old Triumph township school boy, may attend the christening of a Liberty ship as the result of a decision to be finally reached today. Arthur may be the winner of the trip, as he has compiled a wonderful record in the state-wide scrap contest in the schools. He is a pupil of Triumph school in Triumph township, where 17 pupils are enrolled. This school rolled up a huge pile of scrap from October 5 to 17, securing a pile of $3,220 pounds, and from October 5 to November 23 had accumulated $9,170 pounds of scrap. The school is in the running for the state award and it wins. Arthur Covell of the seventh grade will make the trip.

Parish At N. Warren Has Ordination

The North Warren Presbyterian church was the scene of a beautiful and solemn ceremonial last evening when the moderator of the Erie Presbytery, Dr. A. B. McCormick, came from Oil City to conduct the first ordination service that parish has witnessed in forty years.

The candidate was Arland Briggs, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Carpenter, of North Warren, who was dismissed from this Presbytery to the South Salem church of the Westchester Presbytery in New York City.

Rev. C. E. Reed, of Waterford, Presbytery clerk, gave the invocation and Dr. McCormick introduced the various speakers and delivered the charge to the young minister. Rev. J. H. Cruikshank, North Warren pastor, gave a stimulating talk on "Be a Good Servant," quoting the late Parson Bill of Endeavor, as a fine example.

The church choir sang a beautiful selection, "Sweet Is Thy Mercy," with Boyd Sanden as soloist. Rev. Gilbert Boyd, of Corry, spoke interestingly on "Statistics," under which he included theft, good causes, good fellowship, business and swelled heads.

Rev. Duff Canady, of Belle Valley, led in prayer to dismiss the large gathering.

H. H. Church, nephew of Mrs. George Sarvis, Hickory street, has returned to the U. S. Navy section base at San Francisco, Calif.

Sgt. S. E. Kavinski and Charles Kavinski, apprentice seaman, have left for their respective stations at Waco Field, Texas, and Great Lakes, Ill., training base after spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kavinsky, of Clarendon.

Second Lt. and Mrs. Robert Greer have arrived in Denton, Tex., where the officer is now stationed. Mrs. Greer, who since her marriage has been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Cederquist, is living at 412 Bryon, Denton, Tex.

STORE HOUR CLOSING

Announcement was made today that the A & P. Super Market will close this evening at seven o'clock.

HOLIDAY AT CAPITAL

State employees leave work this afternoon for an extended Thanksgiving vacation which will end on Monday morning. Most state offices at Harrisburg will be closed, but state selective service headquarters will remain open.

RETURNS TO DESK

George Nelson has returned to the desk at the Carver House and his many friends among the men on the road and guests of the hotel will be glad to meet and greet him. Mr. Nelson is a popular clerk at the hotel and has been absent from his post there for some time.

NEED MORE MEN

More men are needed for the machine school classes being taught in South street school and any men not engaged in war industries and interested in classes from 5:30 to 9:30 p. m., 9:30 p. m. to 1:30 a. m., are asked to communicate at once with the local U. S. Employment Service office.

PRACTICE MOBILIZATION

Towns in the western and southern end of Warren county whose defense control is vested in Titusville's control center had a practice mobilization last evening in which all groups of defense units co-operated. Spring Creek and Enterprise defense workers were sent scurrying to their posts when the yellow signal came at 9:20. The blue signal at 9:30 and the "all clear" came at 9:40. The call came from Oil City and applied only to the Titusville area.

DEER HUNTERS BUSY

Local deer hunters who plan getting into the woods on next Monday, the season's opening day are busy trying out ammunition and other equipment for the foray. Ammunition is a problem but by trading and borrowing nearly all are getting outfitted. Thursday several parties will get into the woods where they will spend the day getting camps in readiness for occupancy next Sunday when scores will trek into the mountain fastnesses.

ORDER IS RESCINDED

The army has rescinded its order under which all manufacturing plants were placed under black-out control of Defense Councils. The industries henceforth will be under control of the Third Army Service Command in the future. The placing of the industries under the black-out regulations would have worked great hardship on the production lines and would have cost much valuable time and money. All plants have plans under which they can blackout but to execute them would require practically stoppage of production.

FURNACE CAUSED ALARM

An emergency fire call took the emergency truck from the Central station to the home of Thomas Bonavita, 914 Fourth avenue, this morning at 8:22. It was found the chimney and furnace were plugged and smoke was filling the home. A call was given for the ladder truck and the chimney was cleaned out, but the furnace will be given attention by plumbers. There was no damage other than from smoke. The firemen were forced to shovel the coal fire from the furnace out a cellar window and when the men returned to their station they resembled Commandos with blackened faces.

CALL FOR KEYS

The Salvage Committee of Warren County Defense Council has made plans for removing from the Pennsylvania Electric Company's display room the "Keys for Victory" collected in October by the Warren Business and Professional Women's Club. They are to be sent to snickers and the metals therein out to work in the war effort. Miss Callie Mead, president of the club, asks that anyone having keys located since the salvage drive will please turn them in at once, either to any club member, to the collection box at the Metzger-Wright store or to the Penn Electric show room so that they may be added to the pile.

SOCIAL EVENTS

HOSTESS TO CLUB

Sales Of Coffee Suspended; Rationing Starts Next Monday

Retail coffee sales throughout the nation were suspended at the close of business Saturday to give merchants a chance to rig up their shelves and stocks for rationing which is to begin next week. As a result, consumers who do not have coffee now are going to do without all this week, including Thanksgiving, unless they can borrow some or go out to a hotel or restaurant for their meals. Next week rationing will begin and consumers will be permitted to purchase their coffee allotments for the first period by using a coupon at the end of the ration book they received when sugar rationing started. Authorities have announced that Coupon No. 27 will be the first to be taken for coffee purchases. The first allotment periods for institutional users which includes restaurants and hotels will start from the dates of their registration, and extend to midnight, January 31, 1943. These coffee users will be entitled to as much coffee during the first two months of rationing as they used in September and October, OPA officials said. The allotment of coffee for a restaurant, hotel or institution not operating in September or October, 1942 will be one pound of coffee for each 60 meals to be served during the allotment period. In this connection OPA said: "A cup of coffee unless served with a food item other than milk, cream, or sugar, shall not constitute a meal." While retail sales of coffee to consumers will be suspended from midnight November 21 to midnight November 28, so that dealers may stock their shelves, sales may be made in that week to institutional users who have registered and obtained their allotments.

Announce Rules For Christmas Package Mail

Timely suggestion in the mailing of Christmas parcels were given today by Superintendent of Mails O. J. Groves of the Warren post office. He advises: Mail your gifts much earlier this year with emphasis on "much earlier." Buy only articles that will not spoil in transit, either from time or by the weight of being placed on top of sacks of parcel post. Use only heavy paper for wrapping not tissue paper. Such parcels will not be accepted. Do not seal a parcel post package unless you have a printed writing (will not do) sticker, giving permission to be opened for postal inspection. Never enclose writing within a parcel. This makes the entire parcel chargeable at three cents an ounce. A letter fastened to the face of the parcel with a three cent stamp is approved, and will assure the letter being delivered with the parcel. If the parcel is to be sent by air-mail, it must be presented at the window, open for inspection. This does not affect anything that is plainly a letter. If a parcel is worth mailing at all it is worth mailing properly. The boys in the service want to get theirs in good condition.

Teachers Do Not Favor Federal Bill

Members of the Warren Borough Teachers' Association, meeting in the high school auditorium at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, head their legislative chairman, R. R. Young, explain Senate Bill No. 1213, which deals with federal aid for education, and registered their rejection of it by a ballot of 60 to 7. Miss Elizabeth Wickstrom, chairman of a committee composed of Miss Alice Siggins, Miss Christine Hurd and Miss Kathryn Martin, read a resolution in memory of Miss Emma Gerhart, former member of the local school system. Plans for a Christmas dinner party to be held at the YWCA activities building on Wednesday evening, December 16, were announced by the chairman of the social committee, Miss Edna Thompson. Teachers who retired during the past year will be guests of honor and an enjoyable program is being arranged. It was stated the publicity committee, headed by Miss Margery Lloyd, is editing a teachers' paper, The Commentator, the first issue making its appearance Friday, November 20. At the conclusion of the busi-

THE observance of Thanksgiving this year is more significant because we are only now beginning to realize what the Thanksgivings of previous years really meant. In observing the holiday let us resolve again that the American Way is the only way—and that our conception of Liberty and the enjoyment of the fruits of our labor is worth every sacrifice we are called upon to make.

NEITHER DID THE PURITANS

We don't have much coffee or tea or cocoa for this year's Thanksgiving dinner. Many meats now are rationed. Assuming that our tires still are usable, there isn't gasoline for a very long trip back to the old home town, and the railroads can't carry us all.

The house or apartment isn't so warm as we would like. There's less wool in our new garments.

Wages are good, there is work for all, but prices are high, taxes are heavy, and we feel impelled to spend more for war bonds than we really can afford to save, so we can't buy the things we would like. For that matter, the stores do not have them anyway, so we couldn't buy them if we did have the money.

In many ways already we are worse off than in the depth of the great depression. New privations are in sight. Yet now comes Thanksgiving Day and again we are supposed to put on a cheerful face and try to think up some blessings.

Well, misery loves company, so let's resurrect one of the Massachusetts Bay Puritans of 1621, in the autumn of which year the first Thanksgiving Day was observed.

We can't take Governor Carver, because he was among the half of the colonists who died in the preceding winter from physical privations, including malnutrition. He never lived to give thanks in America.

William Bradford, second governor, will do. Presumably he had as many comforts as there were in the village of Plymouth.

Bring back the spirit of William Bradford, invite him to Thanksgiving dinner in the home of the poorest family in town, and watch his spiritual eyes pop at what he sees and what he has to eat!

Sure, we are short of coffee and tea, spices and beef, gasoline and fuel oil and virgin wool in our store clothes. And how much of any of these do you suppose the Pilgrim Fathers had when in gratitude for their first matured harvest, which for the first time enabled them to eat a satisfying full meal of any sort, they established the institution of Thanksgiving?

They felt themselves fortunate to have some grain (we have a surplus) which they could make successively into flour and bread; some turkeys (fowls are not rationed) which they went into the Indian-infested forests and shot; crude houses in which 65-degrees of heat anywhere except in front of the fireplace would have seemed miraculous.

Our sons, our husbands, our brothers and our friends are away from home, a few dead and more facing death. Their sons, husbands, brothers and friends already were dead—one out of two of them—dead for lack of the food, clothing, shelter which the most under-privileged family in America possesses.

Yet the Pilgrims thought up the idea of giving thanks all by themselves, without benefit of presidential proclamation.

We should have no difficulty, once a year, in drumming up a little considered gratitude toward God, toward our forefathers, toward the rich land they won for us and the freedoms they established for us.

We should find it easy, even in such a year as this, to be genuinely thankful that we have inherited blessings of democracy that are worth preserving at far greater price than any that we may have to pay in this war.

SAVE GOOD PARTS OF OLD MACHINES

Some machinery manufacturers have asked farmers not to junk machines which they are not using without first taking off any parts which may be of use to themselves or their neighbors.

It may even be worth while to send an old machine back to the factory to be reconditioned for a farmer who may need it without going through all the stages of manufacture of a new one from scrap, explains County Agent Tritt.

Only 25 per cent of steel production will go into civilian uses and only about one-third the supply of repair parts will be available in 1943 as were on hand for this year. Farmers must, therefore, take good care of what they have.

Reports from various parts of the state show that machines 30 years old which were thought to be worn out again are being put to good use. Your local machinery dealer will be glad to help locate manufacturers or their representatives who can help put every piece of farm equipment in condition to serve best in this emergency.

Remember the Warren folks in the service when you give thanks tomorrow!

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — British military experts here are enthusiastic about a new weapon they are turning out by the hundreds of thousands.

It's not a "secret weapon," but its potentialities are considered almost as great as if it were.

It's the Sten gun, designed by a British lieutenant colonel and a draughtsman.

Let me give you the gasper first. It's a sub-machine gun that fires at the rate of 500 rounds a minute and costs only a bit more than $8.

IF YOU don't think the British are convinced they have something there, give a thought to the fact that they already have manufactured more than a million and are still turning them out at top speed.

The Ministry of Supply calls it "the most revolutionary gun ever produced in such a short time."

First impressions, say the British experts, are that it looks like an ugly piece of drain-pipe discarded by the plumber. But they claim men who never held a gun before have been able to rip a target to shreds with one at 30 yards and make effective hits at much greater distances.

It fires from a clip, carrying 32 rounds of 9 MM. round-nose, rimless ammunition; cools while the clip is being changed (about the same length of time it would take to reload an Army automatic); weighs about six and a half pounds and is only 30 inches long.

It is cheaper than the tommy-gun (which costs around $200); and is a possible replacement for that and the automatic pistol.

The Sten gun is already being issued to the British Home Guard. It's simplicity (it has only 59 parts—less than half the number of the tommy-gun) makes it a perfect weapon for civilian or home guard use in close-fighting.

There is one even more important possibility for the Sten gun than equipping the Home Guard and tank crews. Dozens of them can be dropped in parachutes, with ammunition attached.

With the United Nations knocking on the doors of occupied Europe with its millions of potential but unarmed allies, the Sten gun may some day prove to be worth its weight in gold.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Doubtless it was the lingering influence of the Chink and the Girl along the West India Dock Road, in Thomas Burke's "Limehouse Nights" but the first time I came to New York Broadway actually seemed sinister, and though the Street itself weltered in its customary blaze of lights, it was easy to imagine that each side street shadow concealed a shawled figure with a patch over one eye. I can tell you now that the cop on the corner was a very welcome sight.

Now, in the dimout, one often wonders what visitors think. The Great White Way is the gray way now. You can not see cars until they are on top of you. Only the other night I stood at 8th avenue in front of the New Yorker, hotel and witnessed an accident that resulted in the death of a woman. She stepped right into the path of an automobile. She simply didn't see it, and before anyone could scream there was a grinding of brakes and she was a limp, crushed figure on the asphalt, dead.

THOUGH the lights have dimmed the crowds do not seem to mind. The sidewalks remain jam-packed, not only with seamen and soldiers from the seven corners of the world but with New Yorkers and visitors, out to catch a moment's distraction.

Only 25 per cent of steel production will go into civilian uses and only about one-third the supply of repair parts will be available in 1943 as were on hand for this year. Farmers must, therefore, take good care of what they have.

Reports from various parts of the state show that machines 30 years old which were thought to be worn out again are being put to good use. Your local machinery dealer will be glad to help locate manufacturers or their representatives who can help put every piece of farm equipment in condition to serve best in this emergency.

Special Notice About Colds

Now when distressing colds strike, relieve misery this home-proved, time-tested way that

ACTS 2 WAYS AT ONCE

It PENETRATES to upper bronchial tubes with soothing medicinal vapors. It STIMULATES chest and back surfaces like a warming poultice. And it keeps right on working for hours—even while you sleep!

Just rub throat, chest and back with double-action Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. VapoRub goes to work instantly to relieve coughing spasms, ease muscular soreness or tightness.

It invites restful, comforting sleep. And often by morning most of the misery of the cold is gone. Try Vicks VapoRub with its special 2-way action tonight! When a cold strikes, be sure you use time-tested Vicks VapoRub.

IF THROAT IS SORE—Let a small lump of Vicks VapoRub melt in your mouth. It relieves throat irritation due to colds—brings soothing comfort. Try it!

Catholic Daughters Celebrate Court's 9th Anniversary

Approximately 80 members of Warren Court, Catholic Daughters of America, enjoyed a turkey dinner last evening at the YWCA activities building in celebration of the 9th anniversary of the local organization.

Tables were most attractive in the court's colors, yellow and lavender, carried out with chrysanthemums and candles.

Special guests were Father E. E. Dailey, who is chaplain of the court, William J. Moore, Arthur Leon, Salvatore Mitchell and Edward Jacobs, of Tidoute.

Father Dailey was the principal speaker, with additional remarks by Father Mitchell. Mrs. W. E. Cooney, grand regent, acted as toastmaster. In addition to group singing, the program of entertainment included a pageant depicting various war periods and including popular songs of each era, all supervised by Mrs. Joseph Bevinio.

Mrs. Cooney announced the next meeting would be on December 7 because of the Christmas party in the 14th; also that the court's hope chest to be awarded at the Christmas party is soon to be displayed in some uptown location.

Golden Wedding Of Youngville Couple Suitably Observed

Youngville, Nov. 25.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Louis Sheldon was appropriately remembered this week. A family dinner party at the Pittsfield Inn on Sunday included the bride couple of 50 years ago and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin H. Wilson, newlyweds of less than one month. Mrs. Wilson is a daughter of the Sheldons and this was her first visit home since her marriage in Washington, D. C.

On Monday an open house was held at the family home on East Main street, made most attractive with many bouquets of golden and bronze chrysanthemums and yellow candles.

More than 40 guests called during the evening to offer best wishes for many more happy anniversaries and the guests of honor were showered with lovely gifts. Refreshments were served as part of the social time.

Some of those present remembered the wedding 50 years ago, when at 8 p. m. on November 23, 1892, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Davis, East Main and Davis streets, their daughter became the bride of Mr. Sheldon.

Rev. Ira Darling, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of 38 guests.

Since that happy day, the Sheldons have continued to make their home here, well known and highly respected citizens of the community. Mr. Sheldon is still active in the lumber business.

Guests from away for the celebration included Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sheldon and two sons, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oviatt, Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilson, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Oviatt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oviatt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson and daughter, Pittsfield.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party for the children on December 12, from there until 6 o'clock in the YWCA activities building.

FOR ALLAN JOHNSON
Sixteen co-workers of the Metzger-Wright Company drapery department enjoyed a dinner at Pittsfield Inn last evening in honor of the buyer for their department, Allan Johnson, who will leave next Monday for army service.

Mrs. Clara Carter, oldest fellow worker in the department in point of service, presented Mr. Johnson with a farewell gift from the group. Mr. Johnson, in his response, spoke of the pleasures of his 17 years of service with the company and of the splendid cooperation extended him by his associates.

WORSHIP SERVICE
At seven o'clock Thanksgiving morning in the United Brethren church, the Otterbein Guild will sponsor a praise service which will be followed by breakfast in the church dining room. Miss Patricia Sperry is in charge of the program, which will include a Thanksgiving message by Pastor W. G. Woodward.

CHOIR REHEARSAL
Presbyterian choir members are reminded today that they will have a regular rehearsal period as usual at 7:15 p. m. Friday.

SHEFFIELD NEWS

Sheffield, Nov. 23.—The Young Woman's Bible Class, of the Bethany Lutheran church will meet Tuesday evening at the parsonage.

Mrs. Irvin Howarth is teaching at the Plank Road school in Watson Township. Mrs. Cecelia Kapp, the former teacher, resigned.

The Dramatic Club of the high school will present their play entitled "The Charm School", on Friday December 4th. Mrs. Martha Eisenhauer and Miss Betty Loomis are directing the play.

The Lincoln School Mothers Club met Wednesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. A. M. Gibson conducted the business meeting. The Ways and Means Committee have a beautiful crocheted tablecloth, that will be raffled next month. Miss Lucille Baynes, teacher of the second grade, gave the following program:

Play—"Our Country's Flag".
Toy Soldier Heroes—Charles Newman.
Songs—Pupils.
Thanksgiving—Dick Wenker.

Mrs. Gibson introduced H. L. Blair, county superintendent of schools. Fr. Blair gave a very interesting talk to the mothers, showing to them how very important it is that the boys and girls have a high school education. This was followed by a colored movie of the city of St. Petersburg, Fla.

A good will representation of mothers were present, and Miss Evelyn V. Peterson, teacher of the first grade won the attendance banner. Lunch was served by the committee.

The meeting of securing additional gas held at the county courthouse, Monday evening, was well attended by a representation of Sheffield people who will relay the information at different organizations. Those present were Misses Mary Richwalski, and Evelyn V. Peterson, A. M. Gibson, C. H. Whittaker, C. L. Rader, W. P. Dorrisson, Rev. Russell, W. V. Christian, L. B. Jones, A. Boardman, L. G. Best, A. Daniels, L. Miley and G. Irvin.

Thanksgiving holiday vacation for students of the Sheffield Township schools, will be Thursday and Friday, and classes will resume as usual Monday morning.

The Bethany Lutheran church will hold their Thanksgiving Day service, Thursday evening at 7:30. The Dave Mainwaring family entertained last Saturday Mrs. E. Franklin, Mrs. Wesley Muddle and Clayton Girke of North East. Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Kapp, Cleveland; Mrs. Floyd Sigworth, Fryburg, and Miss Pauline Poulain of Tylersburg, Pa., visited Miss Lucille Baynes, and Mrs. Anna Poulain last Sunday.

P. F. C. Joseph Kirkpatrick stationed at Washington, D. C., is spending a few days with his wife, Mrs. Clara H. Kirkpatrick.

The following boys in service are home on furlough: Lloyd Albaugh, John Fedorsic, Dale Tome and Andrew Yusok.

PERSONALS
Friends of Mrs. Peter Nelson, and Mrs. C. O. Ryberg will regret to learn that these ladies, well known to the community are ill at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harampolis, and the Misses Peggy Perry, and Beatrice Carlson have secured employment at Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Harry Schwartz of Lewiston, is making an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. O. Eisenhauer.

John Petruney, stationed at Camp Sutton, Monroe, N. C., and Jerry Sorvelli of the St. Elizabeths Hospital, Washington, D. C., are home on furloughs.

RUSSELL
Russell, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Flora Martin and Mrs. O. Kirby entertained at a shower at the home of the former in honor of Mrs. Glenn Martin, who was recently married. Games were played and the honor guest received a lovely gift. Refreshments were served. Out of town guests were Mrs. William Harmon, Mrs. Loretta Evans, of Erie; Mrs. George Olson, of Warren; Mrs. Brasington, of Niagara Falls.

Staff Sgt. Donald D. Gruber and his wife have returned home from Camp Blanding, Florida. Mr. Gruber had a two day visit at the Gruber home here. He returned to camp Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster have moved into the Fuhrer house, corner of Pine and East streets.

The "White Ladies" Aid Society will meet the first Wednesday in December with Mrs. Gunnard Lundmark for an all day meeting. The affair is the annual Christmas working on a quilt.

DOUBLE FEATURE AT THE LIBRARY TODAY AND THURSDAY
"Miss Anne Rooney"
Shirley Temple is pert and gets kissed in her newest screen opus, "Edward Small's" "Miss Anne Rooney," which will have its initial showing at the Library Theatre today and Thursday.

The story of this new film production is as up-to-date as the rubber shortage, as lively as a bunch of young jittersbugs and as appealing as a young girl's first romance. In fact, all these elements go to make the story of "Miss Anne Rooney," who was raised on the wrong side of the tracks but with everyone on both sides with her warm loveliness and infectious gaiety.

"A-Haunting We Will Go"
Sh-h! With nothing up their sleeves and nothing in their heads, except laughs aplenty, Laurel and Hardy are coming to the Library Theatre in "A-Haunting We Will Go," a rollicking film which, judging from advance notices, abounds in practically all the ingredients of solid entertainment—magic, murder, mirth, action and romance.

NORTH WARREN

North Warren, Nov. 24.—The ladies in North Warren and vicinity are urged to help the Girl Scouts and Brownies who will call at the homes after Wednesday to collect silk and Nylon hose. These goods are needed very badly in our efforts to win the war. Boxes are placed at the Post Office, Sandin's Store and various other places for those who wish to use them. Also, everyone is urged to save all their tin cans, wash them, take the labels off, flatten them and Valentine's Disposal truck will call for them.

Albert Nelson, Warren-Jamestown Road, went to Aspinwall Veteran's Hospital last week for treatment.

Mrs. Hugh Logan, Maple Place, who has been spending a few days in Pittsburgh, returned to her home on Friday.

Four-year old Billy Wilson, Jr. had the misfortune to fall down the cellar stairs at his home on Jackson street Thursday evening. Fortunately no bones were broken, but he received a bad cut on his face and was badly shaken up.

Mrs. Minnie Andereg entertained her Bridge Club at a turkey dinner at 1 o'clock on Friday. Auction bridge was played in the afternoon with high score going to Mrs. Leonora Brooks and low to Mrs. Edith Ebel. Mrs. Ebel also received the traveling prize.

Mrs. Berna Jones entertained the Harmony Club Friday evening at her home on South State street. Cards were played, and a nice luncheon was served. The out-of-town guest was Mrs. Gertrude Perry, Borne Beach, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. McPherson and son Billy, Pittsburgh, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Peterson, South State street.

Mrs. Lillian Hyde and Mrs. Marian Watson, Youngville, spent Thursday with Mrs. Hyde's daughter, Mrs. Harold Hall, 54 Spruce street, Jamestown, N. Y.

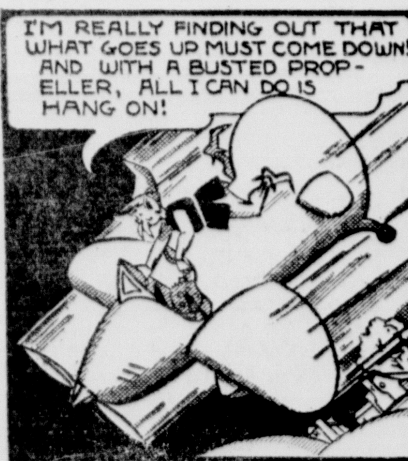

Visitors at the "Till" Thayer home last week were Mrs. Harry Perry, Borne Beach, N. Y., Mrs. Harriett Engler, Corry, Pa., and Mrs. Myrna Springer, Irvine, Pa.

TIMES TOPICS

CLOSING AT SEVEN

Loblaws' Groceries will close at seven o'clock this evening and not at nine as was stated in Tuesday's issue.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

It will interest friends to know that Maynard "Happy" Berg, injured in an automobile accident at Massillon, O., several weeks ago, has been discharged from the hospital and is spending a few days in Warren and Chanders Valley.

HOLIDAY COMMUNION

In response to the President's appeal for Thanksgiving Day to be observed as a day of prayer, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion in Trinity Memorial church at ten o'clock Thursday morning.

TELLS OF TRAVELS

Miss Mathilda Steinhoff, of the high school faculty, was guest speaker for the regular session of the First Methodist Youth Fellowship, telling of her travels in Mexico and illustrating her narrative with many souvenirs of that country.

FREWSBURG SPEAKER

The Young People's Society of Bethlehem Congregational church, in charge of the Thanksgiving service at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, has secured as guest speaker Rev. K. E. Pearson, from the Frewsburg Home for the Aged. There will also be special musical numbers by various members of the society. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited.

DELAY IN OIL COUPONS

Pennsylvania farmers who have not received fuel oil ration coupons will be able to buy fuel oil until November 23 by promising to turn over to the dealer coupons equal in value to the fuel oil bought when the ration is issued. However, a consumer is prohibited from accepting the fuel "on credit" after November 1, unless a ration has been applied for and the applicant has reasonable cause to believe he is entitled to receive a ration.

WAACS ARE NEEDED

Second Lt. Regina M. Hill, of the army recruiting and induction headquarters in Pittsburgh, advises the Warren Lodge of Elks that she will again visit Warren some time in late January, exact dates to be announced later. She has announced that there is a crying need for white cooks and chauffeurs at the new camp at Daytona Beach, Fla., and that applicants will be sent there immediately upon qualification.

SPECIAL SEAL FILM

In conjunction with the annual Christmas Seal sale started Monday by the Warren County Tuberculosis Society, the Library Theatre is showing a special Christmas movie short, "Silent Night, Holy Night," featuring Jean Dickerson, Metropolitan Opera, radio and concert star, and the famous Paulist Choristers. G. C. Sarvis, manager, reports that Miss Dickerson and the Choristers made the film as their contribution to the anti-tuberculosis campaign. It was taken in the old church of Saint Paul the Apostle, one of New York's landmarks.

IDENTIFY COUPONS

The office of Price Administration advised car owners today to write their license number and State of registration on the back of all gasoline ration coupons. New regulations require the information on all coupons surrendered except by truck fleets with "B" books. It was also pointed out that the identification also would make the coupons valueless if they were stolen. Each coupon, beginning with No. 3 will be worth three gallons instead of four unless a further change is ordered.

taken to the hospital Friday night, was brought home Sunday evening and is getting along nicely.

We are sorry that the "North Warren Gazette" is going out of business. They published their last issue Saturday. Their circulation manager, David King, has left for his new home in Meadville.

Our postmaster, Gerald Ricker, has been quite ill for the past week.

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, Nov. 23.—The Stillson Hill Ladies' Aid, met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Peterson. A delicious dinner was served by the hostess who was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alan Peterson and Mrs. Ellsworth Wilson. Eighteen were present. Devotions were conducted by the president, with Mrs. William Saunders at the piano.

Plans were discussed for the old fashioned Thanksgiving dinner to be served at the church Thanksgiving day.

Anyone interested is invited to bring some food and their table service. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Lucile Irvine. The afternoon was spent with sewing.

Maplewood Rebekah Lodge met Friday evening in regular session, with Noble Grand, Jennie Weissbrodt, presiding. A committee was appointed to act with a committee from Coldbrook L. O. O. F. lodge to purchase a service flag.

At the next regular meeting December 4th, a social time will be arranged and members will bring names of service men and Christmas cards, donated by Mrs. Verdel Phrsh will be sent them. The degree team of Lady of the Lake Lodge of Lakewood, was presented and conferred the degree on three candidates, Mrs. Dale Nobbs and Mrs. Robert Baldwin for this lodge and Mrs. Miller for Lakewood.

The floor work as well as the ritual work was very beautiful and much enjoyed by those present, which included D. D. P. Francis McCallister of Youngsville and guests from Lakewood and Jamestown. A delicious supper was served by the committee of Mrs. Armetta Deveraux and Mrs. Clarence Sherrard.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, was entertained at the home of Mrs. Scott Stuart, Thursday afternoon with twenty present. Mrs. C. L. Veness presided and Mrs. Elmer Frodelius acted as program leader. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Carl Perrin on the theme of Thanksgiving. Miss Josephine Ricker presented the study book, "On This Foundation". Others taking part on the program were Mrs. Hugh Sherrard, Mrs. Veness and Mrs. Lottie Duell. Mrs. Ray Johnson, acted as pianist. The society planned to make gifts in response to special calls. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. McKay and Mrs. Scott Stuart Jr., in serving refreshments.

Mrs. Clarence Sherrard, entertained the N. E. Club and several guests, Wednesday evening. Four tables of bridge were played with Mrs. Arthur Cody and Mrs. J. A. McIntosh, receiving high honors. Mrs. Harold Carter, was welcomed as a new member. The hostess served dainty refreshments.

Hoople's Predictions

BY MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
1942 Peerless Picker

Egad, gentle readers! This is my farewell forecast for 1942. If I happen to miscall a game here and there, ascribe it to the fact I am full of Thanksgiving turkey. (Ed. Note: Also plenty of baloney!)

My special this week is Georgia to nose out the Georgia Tech quintet by a tally of 14 to 13. Close, eh what?

My upset special is Iowa to tie Michigan, the score 7 to 7. Some may regard it as a bit unorthodox for me to select Navy to defeat Army, 13 to 7, but I trust you have learned during the season that the unexpected always could be expected from Hoople. Har-rumph!

I'll be leaving you now until the baseball season opens, which they can find kangaroos to carry the athletes from town to town. Until then, tally-ho, old pork-pie, and all that!

WHAT'S THAT DOCUMENT UNDER YOUR ARM—THE DIPLOMA YOU GOT FOR WINNING A SOAP SLOGAN CONTEST?

I'M FOGGY ON MY ADJECTIVES, BUT DOESN'T 'SEDENTARY' MEAN ROOTED IN A CHAIR?—IF THAT'S WHAT THE JOB TAKES, YOU QUALIFY LIKE GANDHI PLAYING GHOST!

EGAD, BOYS! WISH ME WELL—I'M OFF TO DISCUSS A TEACHING POSITION WITH SCHOOL OFFICIALS—HAR-RUMPH! MY SWASHBUCKLING ANCESTORS WOULD CHUCKLE TO SEE A SEDENTARY ROLE, BUT I SHOULD FIT IN EASILY WITH MY FLAIR FOR PEDAGOGY!

WELL WANT AN EASY CHAIR, THOUGH!

NOTICE
No. 44 December Term, 1942
In the Court of Common Pleas of Warren County, Pennsylvania
To Charles F. Harlan, Trustee of Charles F. Roberts and any Successor Trustee or the legal representative of Charles F. Roberts.

To Joseph M. Wardwell and John Broach, or their legal representatives, or whoever may be the holder or holders of the mortgages hereinafter mentioned.

TAKE NOTICE that on October 28, 1942 Maude M. Morrison presented her petition setting forth that she and Anna I. Morrison are the owners of part of Warrant No. 3725, Corydon Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: on the north by the northerly line of said Warrant 3725; on the east by the easterly line of said Warrant; on the south by the southerly line of said Warrant and on the west by a line drawn from the north line to the south line parallel with the east line and far enough westerly therefrom to embrace 200 acres; that unsatisfied mortgages upon said land remain of record in the Recorder's office of Warren County, viz: one given by Stephen R. Morrison to Charles F. Harlan, Trustee of Charles F. Roberts dated June 1, 1861, and recorded in said Recorder's office in Mortgage Book "C", page 592, securing the payment of $6018.76 and interest; another mortgage given by said Stephen R. Morrison to Joseph M. Wardwell dated October 1, 1874 and recorded in said Recorder's office in Mortgage Book "C", page 171, securing the payment of $5000.00 and interest; and another mortgage given by Phebe T. Morrison to John Broach dated October 15, 1881 and recorded in said Recorder's office in Mortgage Book "F", page 205 and securing the payment of $400.00 and interest; that a period of more than twenty-one years has elapsed since each of said mortgages became due and payable and that no payment to apply on any of said mortgages has been made within said period and praying for satisfaction of such mortgages.

Whereupon said Court ordered this notice served upon the parties first above mentioned requiring them to appear in said Court on December 7, 1942 to answer said petition, and to show cause why the proper decree should not be granted and each of said mortgages satisfied.

Some Peculiar Angles To The Army - Navy Game Saturday

BY SID FEDER
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 25.—(P)—They're unfolding the vest pocket edition of the Army-Navy football game in the Midway compact ball park Saturday, and if Army finishes on top—as it figures to do—the Cadets can thank the Navy for handing it to them on a platter.

For it it hadn't been for several Navy gold-brains who wanted the game to be played there just wouldn't have been any Army-Navy game.

What's more, if football continues during the war, there'll be no more service extravaganzas as the boys and girls have known them in the past, with all the rah-rah stuff, the hullabaloo of marching battalions and military bands, and the crowds of 100,000 or so sitting in. Instead, it will be just like any other football game.

That's where the navy stepped in. They must have known, from the way Coach Red Blaik had the Army guys rolling, that the Cadets figured to mow the Midway down. Yet the Navy biggies went all out in their argument to have the game played.

Several of them went to Washington to lay their case before the top authorities.

Aliquippa and New Castle In Spotlight

Pittsburgh, Nov. 25.—(P)—The Aliquippa high school football team is in a position to stage one of the big upsets of the 1942 season tomorrow if it can get the breaks and beat New Castle in their game at Ambridge to decide the Class A WPIAL title.

The New Castle squad, coached by the veteran Phil Bridenbaugh, rolled up 245 points to 70 for its opponent and had a hardly a "breather" on its card. Its victims included Beaver Falls, Washington, Mt. Lebanon, Scott and Butler, along with eastern Ohio teams like Youngstown East, Campbell Memorial and Warren, Robert (General) Lee, negro half-back playing his last game, is the outstanding New Castle player.

Coach Carl Aschman of Aliquippa, has piloted his boys to 16 triumphs in 17 games during past two years.

Wrong Number

This ball was intended for player number 14, but the wrong 14 got it and ran it back 48 yards as New York Giants tied Green Bay Packers, 21-21, at Polo Grounds. Ward Cuff, right, of the Giants leaps in front of Don Hutson to make interception.

COVERING THE SPORTS FRONT!

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

If, as we have been arguing, the current hockey season will give an indication of the wartime fate of other sports, you can stop worrying about 'em and send your mind off on a long vacation. There's a precedent in the meeting of the National Hockey League governors the other day. The hockey men knew that they can't get any more players from Canada to play in the United States, but when they started to cut the player limit to give the weaker clubs a break, they compromised on a reduction of one.

The clubs that have more than 14 besides a goalie now will be able to keep that extra man, even though they can't use him in every game, instead of selling off their surplus.

Sighted Savages, etc.—Now that it's no longer a military secret, Bob McCarty of St. Martin's College at Lacey, Wash., feels he can tell the public about the "naval battle" November 14 between the St. Martin's Rangers and the Eastern Washington Savages. Seems there was a "high fog" that day and the field was covered with water, sometimes five and six inches deep. The chalk lines were only a vague memory; the subs and coaches retired to the covered grandstand and, when a team went back into a huddle, the referee had to hold the ball so it wouldn't float away. "Oh, yes," Bob oh yeses, "St. Martin's won 6-0."

Sportsmentation—A new story on why the Dodgers fired Chuck Dressen is that Chuck had been outpoken about being anything but fond of Branch Rickey. Don Meade, who can resume riding January 1, when his suspension ends, will winter at New Orleans and has leased his Miami house to Marshall Cassidy. The idea of having midshipmen substitute for the absent Army cheering section at the Army-Navy game isn't exactly new in military circles. For years West Point and Canada's Royal Military Academy have furnished rosters for the visiting team in their hockey series. Mel Ott is due in town today. Maybe after reading all the news about the Dodgers he wants to prove the Giants still are in the league. The fight mob has decided that Henry Armstrong would have trouble making the lightweight limit again, so now it looks as if Henry's return to Madison Square Garden will be against Eumny Davis late in January.

Today's Guest Star—Lewis Atchison, Washington Evening Star, Perry Schwartz began his athletic career as a tennis player in California, developed into a football player with the Golden Bears and after yesterday's business with Bob Masterson, if there aren't a half dozen fight managers on his spear, they're missing a good bet.

Dempsey Says Conn Would Have Chance

Pittsburgh, Nov. 25.—(P)—Lieut. Jack Dempsey, of the U. S. Coast Guard, believes Billy Conn would have had a swell chance to win the heavyweight boxing title from Joe Louis in their proposed second bout which was called off by the war department.

"But," said the popular ex-champ, during a two-hour layover here last night, "the fight I would have liked to sit in on was that Conn-Jimmy Smith Kitchen battle."

"That Smith must be some guy. We could use him in the Coast Guard."

Jimmy Smith, former major league baseball player, is Conn's father-in-law. The two staged an impromptu battle in Smith's kitchen several months ago in which Conn broke his hand.

Dempsey, enroute from the west coast to New York, had to switch from plane to train here. He almost stopped traffic in the Pennsylvania railroad station while waiting.

"Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition," the nation's No. 1 song-hit, is particularly popular among the army of large and small game hunters active in the game fields of this section, due to an ever-growing ammunition shortage.

Many small game hunters who had fairly good stocks of shells saved for the hunting season, have had their stocks so depleted that they were conserving on every shot. In fact, few of them are trying shots unless they are pretty sure of getting bull's eyes.

The big game hunters are watching their ammunition closely but have not been forced to use so much energy conserving their ammunition, because comparatively few shots have been fired. None of the hunters appeared to be overloaded with ammunition, but the wealth of bears supposed to be in the woods was not found by the hunters and all of the bears that were taken out through the western gateway to the big game area could be counted upon one's fingers, according to observers.

Apparently the Bruins helped the sportsmen to conserve their cartridges by carefully keeping out of range.

PHILADELPHIA HAVING BIGGEST GRID RALLY

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(P)—Philadelphia stages its biggest football rally of the season tonight in preparation for the University of Pennsylvania's traditional Thanksgiving Day battle with Cornell tomorrow.

Jeffers Says Rationing To Start Dec. 1

from Washington telling an individual how to go about his own business looks too much like the bug that bit Hitler.

The people, Summers told a house interstate commerce subcommittee, are demonstrating voluntarily that they can conserve rubber. He suggested that they be permitted to continue on that basis rather than employing gasoline rationing as a basis for conserving rubber.

Despite the protests by Summers and others, Rubber Administrator William M. Jeffers declared the rationing program stands and will begin as scheduled on Dec. 1.

Representative Johnson (D-Okla.) said he would continue his fight for a 90-day stay and Re- presentative Anderson (D-NM) said he and a group of other oil-state congressmen would try to show that nationwide rationing is completely unnecessary.

After hearing Jeffers yesterday, however, members of a house interstate subcommittee said privately it appeared that little could be done to avert the move. They referred to Jeffers' declaration that rationing was not necessary, said he and a group of other oil-state congressmen would try to show that nationwide rationing is completely unnecessary.

A delegation of Pittsburgh businessmen protesting the inclusion of western Pennsylvania in the eastern rationing area, where an "A" coupon is worth only three gallons of gasoline, said they would appeal to the Federal Reserve Board to rescind the rationing program, OPA urged motorists to endorse their coupons at once rather than waiting to endorse each coupon when making a gasoline purchase at a service station. This will help protect the ration books from misuse in the case of loss or theft, OPA said.

The new "write-in" requirement, which became effective in the east November 21, requires passenger car operators to write on the back of each coupon the car's license number and state of registration. It becomes effective for the rest of the country when nationwide mileage rationing is started December 1.

Chairman Truman (D-Mo.) of the special senate defense investigating committee announced that Jeffers, Secretary Harold L. Ickes, Defense Transportation Director Joseph B. Eastman and Price Administrator Leon Henderson had been directed to appear Friday to establish the need for rationing.

He said he hoped to develop through the four officials "such a complete picture of the necessity for general rationing that opposition would subside."

Conceding that there was no shortage of gasoline in the west and midwest, Jeffers reminded the house committee that "a car will burn up as much rubber in Oklahoma, for example, as it will in Maine."

"Our problem is to keep the cars running," he added, "and the more materialize, he told the committee, the outlook for 1944 will be encouraging, for in that year synthetic rubber production is expected to reach 800,000 tons, or 200,000 tons more than normal peacetime requirements."

He repeated that an organized campaign of opposition to nationwide rationing was being "frustrated" by people who ought to know better.

PIPEFITTER FOUND GUILTY OF SLAYING
Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—(P)—Harry W. Johnson, 26-year-old shipyard pipefitter, sat alone in his prison cell today awaiting sentence on a charge of first degree murder in the shotgun killing of his pretty sweetheart, Marie Ervin, 30, who jilted him.

A jury of eleven men and women which convicted him late yesterday recommended that he die in the electric chair. Judge Vincent A. Carroll deferred sentencing for five days pending a motion for a new trial.

Dr. Wise, who heads the committee, asserted that already the Jewish population of Warsaw had been reduced from 500,000 to about 100,000.

In addition to the state department, the documentary proof of previous rumors and reports, the chairman said a "representative of President Roosevelt, recently returned from Europe," had confirmed other stories and told him that "the worst you thought is true."

Whether details of the gruesome campaign will be revealed publicly will be decided by the committee. Dr. Wise said, adding that any contemplated action will be announced after today's meeting.

Rational Book No. One Becomes Valid For Coffee Nov. 28th around the first of the year in order to receive war ration book No. 2, the so-called "universal" ration book.

The notice was aimed at those who have never applied for book No. 1, those who were denied a book because they had an excess sugar supply, and those who had surrendered their books for one reason or another.

To prevent fraud, OPA instructed local boards to "examine closely" persons who claim never to have applied for the book, so that no one shall obtain more than one copy of the ration book.

In connection with the gasoline rationing program, OPA urged motorists to endorse their coupons at once rather than waiting to endorse each coupon when making a gasoline purchase at a service station. This will help protect the ration books from misuse in the case of loss or theft, OPA said.

Red Army Piling Up New Gains In Offensive Thrusts

(From Page One)
Battlefront dispatches reporting gains of 25 more miles yesterday in the Chernyshevskaya area with in the Don bend indicated that the Russian advance in this sector was reaching menacingly close to the Nazi-held southern section of the main Moscow-to-Rostov rail line.

The drive southwest of Stalingrad also continued.

Red Star said it was impossible to count the spoils which fell to the advancing Russians as the Germans withdrew. Automobiles, tanks and even airplanes were left behind.

German forces arrayed before Stalingrad still were described as strong, and Russian dispatches said the Nazis showed no signs of falling back from their positions, although their case grew more desperate hourly as the corridor behind them narrowed.

Production As Usual On Thanksgiving

came as the government expanded food purchases for the armed forces and the Allies, and authorities debated whether wider rationing of food stuffs should be tried to insure war needs.

As with civilians, the government's current requirements were greatest in the case of meats, poultry and dairy products, and in some instances, the government had got its bid in first. War Production Board orders had previously set aside a portion of the supply for the government or for limited distribution among civilians to assure military needs. Such was the case with meat, butter, canned fish, dried and evaporated fruits, and some classes of canned fruits and vegetables.

There was one item which may be missing from many Thanksgiving tables. It was coffee. Sales were forbidden this week as officials froze stocks pending the start of rationing next week.

Allies Spar For Opening In Tunisia

(From Page One)
There was a dearth of news from North Africa today although the air war preliminary to the decisive ground battle continued hotly.

Both Axis communications stressed blows particularly against Allied shipping and Allied-held port in Algeria. These enemy claims, however, had no confirmation.

The Germans' heavy use of air transport was underscored by a Reuters report from Cairo that a Nazi seaplane capable of flying over 200 miles an hour had been shot down in the Mediterranean yesterday by RAF long-range fighters off the eastern coast of Tunisia. The plane for flying northward, presumably after having disembarked enemy reinforcements.

In the same waters, British fighters were said also to have shot down a JU-52 transport plane and to have damaged a Dornier 24. Only the Dornier had a fighter escort.

Long-range American P-38 fighters ranged the skies above the ground troops, seeking out German and Italian concentrations, attacking troop columns and trains and occasionally engaging Axis planes. Four German planes were shot down and a troop train was riddled by these fighters near Gabes yesterday.

British observers said that both the British Eighth Army in Libya and the Allied army in Tunisia have built up their forces for a crushing blow at both ends of the extended German lines which would be launched at any minute.

Advices from authorized spokesmen, however, have indicated a longer period of preparation for the admittedly tough assignment.
